

FEBC Russian Ministries Prayer Focus August 2018

Wednesday – 1

Please pray for Aleksey Vlasihin, FEBC's manager in St. Petersburg, and his staff, as they use social media and online broadcast tools to reach hundreds of thousands of listeners. Many people, especially young listeners, have come to faith in God through our broadcasts on the Internet. Pray that God will continue to bless our broadcasters and listeners.

Thursday – 2

"I began listening to FEBC only recently. I was baptized as a child in the Russia Orthodox church, but did not want to deal with religion. I thought the church was for old people. Now I am discovering that there are many non-Russian Orthodox churches, with lots of young people in them! I am learning a lot from your programs, discovering what Christian faith really is. Please pray that I will be a real believer." Dmitry from Russia.

Friday – 3

Please continue to pray for the financial support of FEBC Russian Ministries. Because of you, thousands of new believers serve the Lord now! Thank you, friends, for your prayers and financial help.

Saturday – 4

Please pray for Victor Akhterov, FEBC Russian Ministries' director, as he is traveling in Russia and Ukraine now. Pray for all meetings and work with FEBC staff in these countries, for God's wisdom and guidance for Victor. Pray for strength and safety in traveling and for Victor's family.

Sunday – 5

Marina, a vet doctor from Russia, became a believer through FEBC broadcasts. "I listen to your programs on the Internet. This is very important for my life: your programs give me comfort and strength, help me to understand many things and grow spiritually. Please pray that God will continue to bless my life," says Marina.

Monday – 6

"Thank you, friends, for your wonderful programs that encourage me in this difficult time of my life. All four of my children are seriously ill. Their bodies get old very fast and their faces look like old people. Doctors can't help them. Please pray that God will heal my children." Vera from Ukraine.

Tuesday – 7

Please pray for Eduard Kurilenko, FEBC's administrative director in Slavyansk, Ukraine. Pray that God will bless his work in Slavyansk, Kramatorsk, Odessa, and Shastya, as well as two new stations in Mariinka and Pokrovsk. Also, pray for his family: Eduard and his wife, Nadezhda, have four little children.

Wednesday – 8

“My life was totally transformed in these short six months that I’ve been listening to your broadcasts. I was exhausted by political chaos, daily shelling and the total depression in our city. Now I am enjoying a vibrant, hopeful life.” Anna from Ukraine.
Please pray that Anna will serve the Lord.

Thursday – 9

Please pray for Vadim Burlaka, our manager in Chernovtsy, Ukraine, and his staff. They produce programs in the Ukrainian language and many Ukrainians have become believers through their broadcasts. Pray for God’s blessings upon Vadim and his staff.

Friday – 10

“Thank you, friends, for your programs and prayers. I like to listen to God’s Word every day because my soul needs it. Please pray that God will heal my heart and lungs.” Anatoly from Slavyansk, Ukraine.

Saturday – 11

Please pray for Irina Chernova, FEBC broadcaster in Moscow. She receives many responses from her listeners who came to faith in God through her programs. Pray that God will continue to bless Irina’s work, her listeners and her personal life.

Sunday – 12

Please pray for Evgeny Sarapulov, an FEBC broadcaster in Moscow. For many years, Evgeny talked to thousands about salvation through Jesus Christ in his daily program Great Day. Many of his young listeners became Christians and now serve the Lord. Pray that God will continue to bless Evgeny’s programs and his family.

Monday – 13

“Thank you for your program that I just listened to on the Internet. I am an Orthodox Christian, but I did not understand many things. Now I read my Bible like it is a new book. Thank you for your teaching and prayers. I will continue to listen to you and follow your advice. Please pray that God will help me understand His Word and live according to His commandments.” Irina from Moscow.

Tuesday – 14

“My family was saved because of your broadcasts. We were on the verge of divorce, and then God came into our lives, through your hope-filled, real messages. Thank you for opening our eyes to who Jesus really is, and how powerfully God can work in our lives. We are amazed and grateful. Please pray that God will continue to bless us; we want to serve Him.” Anton from Siberia.

Wednesday – 15

Please pray for Oleg Cherny, FEBC Russian Ministries’ administrative director, as he has many ministry responsibilities in Russia and Ukraine. Pray that God will bless Oleg’s work and provide good health for him. Pray for strength and stamina for Oleg and for safety in traveling.

Thursday – 16

“I heard about FEBC broadcasts from my friends. Now I listen to you regularly because your programs encourage me and give me comfort. Recently, my brother lost his vision. I called you and received help and advice from your hosts. Please pray for my brother. I believe God can heal him. He is only 60.” Nadezhda from Moscow.

Please pray that Nadezhda and her brother will come to faith in God.

Friday – 17

Please pray for Rudi Wiens, who is overseeing FEBC’s ministry in Central Asia, and his staff. Pray that God will bless all programs and broadcasters in Kyrgyzstan and Kazakhstan, so that many Muslims in these countries will accept Jesus and follow Him.

Saturday – 18

Shelli listens to FEBC broadcasts regularly and says that she believes in God. Long ago, she was attending church but left it because she is a lesbian. Our broadcaster, Vlad Iurtov, talked to her about God and invited her to his church. Please pray that Shelli will accept Jesus and change her life.

Sunday – 19

Please pray for Vlad Iurtov, our broadcaster in St. Petersburg, and for his programs. “Please pray for all the listeners we are getting in touch with. We depend on the Holy Spirit every time we talk to them,” says Vlad.

Monday – 20

“I began listening to you several months ago, and then I called in to ask for help. My husband left me two years ago and I did not know what to do. Because of your guidance, I began praying and started attending an evangelical church. My husband came back to the family in May. I just want you to know that I believe this is God’s hand.” Elena from St. Petersburg.

Please pray that this family will serve the Lord.

Tuesday – 21

Please pray for Sergey Burlaka, FEBC leader in Kiev, Ukraine, as he produces videos for the ministry. He also has many other responsibilities in the ministry and needs God’s wisdom and guidance. Pray that God will bless Sergey’s work, so that many non-believers will come to faith in God through his videos.

Wednesday – 22

Please pray for Ulanbek, our program director in Kyrgyzstan. Pray that God will give him wisdom in his work with Muslims, so that many will accept Jesus as their Savior. Also, pray for all broadcasters in this country and their programs.

Thursday – 23

“Every time I listen to your family programs, I learn something new, and I try to put it into practice as I deal with my 12-year-old son. As a single mom, I realize I am up to a challenge. Before I began listening to you, I missed so many simple things, like asking questions and then actually listening to my son, and helping him to find a male role model. I pray for Maksim regularly now, and the very act of prayer changes so much. Thank you!” Anna from Krasnodar.

Please pray for Anna and her son.

Friday – 24

Please pray for Igor Popov, FEBC-Moscow's broadcaster as he is bringing the Gospel to families with disabled children. Pray that God will bless his programs, so that many listeners will find comfort in Jesus Christ.

Saturday – 25

“I listened to FEBC broadcasts for several months before I decided to visit a church with my friend. The first time I came, I gave my life to the Lord. A year ago, I would not have dreamed of becoming a Christian, and today my life is completely transformed. I have new friends, brothers and sisters, and I have Jesus in my life. Thank you!”
Praise be to God!

Sunday – 26

Please pray for Vladimir Savenkov, our missionary in Ukraine. He and his wife became foster and adoptive parents to six children. Vladimir also serves children who live in orphanages. Pray for God’s blessings upon Vladimir, his big family and for orphan children who need God’s love.

Monday – 27

Leonid, 32, is a high school teacher. “I never thought much about God,” wrote Leonid. “When I became your listener, I began seeing life in a different way, paying attention to people, their feelings and hopes, particularly with my students. Recently, I began praying—for my family, my students, for myself. It is strange, but I think God really hears my prayers.” Please pray that Leonid will serve the Lord for the rest of his life.

Tuesday – 28

Please pray for Andrey Starodubtsev, an FEBC programmer in Moscow. His program for young people is successful and many young listeners have committed their lives to Jesus. Andrey answers their questions and helps them in their spiritual life.

Wednesday – 29

Please pray for Sergey and his family; they recently came to Slavyansk from the war zone. Pray that God will provide for all their needs.

Thursday – 30

Please pray for Janysh, FEBC’s station manager in Kyrgyzstan, and for all his staff. Pray that through their broadcasting, Muslims will accept Jesus and serve Him.

Friday – 31

Please pray for Rev. Oleg Shevkun, FEBC’s senior broadcaster in Moscow. Oleg works with non-believing students from Moscow and St. Petersburg universities. He invites them to FEBC’s studio to participate in the program. Many young listeners have come to faith in God through Oleg’s broadcasts. Pray that God will continue to bless Oleg and his programs.
