

FEBC Russian Ministries Prayer Focus December 2016

Thursday – 1

Please pray for Alexey Vlasihin, FEBC manager in St. Petersburg. Alexey and the staff in Moscow and St. Petersburg are responsible for several programming projects and are now producing a new program, Formula of the Family. This family-oriental program is very popular, as it provides answers to probing questions. Pray that God will bless their work, so that many non-believers will come to faith in God through FEBC broadcasts.

Friday – 2

“Thank you, friends, for your Formula of the Family program! I listen to it on the Internet regularly because this program helps my family and me a lot. Now we need your prayers. My sister’s fiancé, Mugnai Mauro, went to Nigeria in April for business. We know that he was robbed and almost killed and could not return home. We do not know where he is or what happened to him. Please pray for God’s protection for Mugnai Mauro. Pray that God will help him return to his country.”
Svetlana from Moscow.

Saturday – 3

Please pray for Janysh, FEBC’s station manager in Bishkek, Kyrgyzstan. His wife just gave birth to their second child. Pray for good health for mother and baby.

Sunday – 4

Please pray for Oleg Cherny, FEBC Russian Ministries’ administrative director. Pray for God’s blessings in his work in Moscow and various Russian cities. Also, pray for his health and family.

Monday – 5

Please pray for Ekaterina from Moscow. She just began attending an evangelical church but is still disappointed in life. “I don’t understand why I should live,” says Ekaterina. Pray that she will find a true purpose for living in Jesus.

Tuesday – 6

Please pray for Sergey Burlaka, FEBC leader in Kiev, Ukraine, as he works to open an FM station in Odessa. Pray that God will provide everything needed to launch this station. We hope to begin broadcasting this month.

Wednesday – 7

Please pray that God will continue to bless FEBC Russian Ministries financially. We need to preach the Gospel to millions as Jesus commanded us to do, and we are glad that thousands have come to faith in God through FEBC broadcasts in Russia and Ukraine. Thank you, friends, for your prayers and support.

Thursday – 8

“Dear brothers and sisters, thank you very much for your amazing broadcast! Your programs are everything to me, because I am almost blind. Please pray for salvation for my son. I found freedom in Christ through your sermons and I hope that my son will serve the Lord, too.” Lubov from Slavyansk, Ukraine.

Friday – 9

Please pray for Eduard Kurilenko, the manager of FEBC-Slavyansk station in Ukraine. Pray for God’s blessings in his work and for safety in traveling, especially when he visits soldiers in the war zone. Also pray for his family: Eduard and his wife, Nadezhda, have four little children.

Saturday – 10

“Thank you, friends, for your wonderful work for the Lord! I like your programs and believe in your prayers. Please pray for my nephew. Pray that God will completely heal him and bless his life. He is a Christian and we spent a lot of time together for praying for people’s needs. Now he covets our prayers because he has become ill.” Evgeniy from Ukraine.

Sunday – 11

Please continue to pray for the potential new FM station in Kramatorsk, Eastern Ukraine. People who live in war zones definitely need FEBC broadcasts. Pray for all broadcasters and staff in Kramatorsk, so that many listeners will receive salvation in Jesus through our broadcasts in this city.

Monday – 12

Please pray for Natalia Chetverina, an FEBC programmer in Moscow. Her program Hope for the Heart is very popular and helps listeners in their daily needs. Pray that many of them will come to know the Lord through Natalia’s broadcasts. Also, pray for Natalia’s health. Pray that God will completely heal her and bless her life.

Tuesday – 13

Please pray for our new staff in Slavyansk: Mikhail, Ulia and Nadezhda. Pray that God will give them wisdom and ability in their work, so that many non-believers will come to faith in God.

Wednesday – 14

Please pray for Victor Akhterov, FEBC Russian Ministries’ director, as he continues to develop FEBC’s ministry in Russia and Ukraine. Pray for God’s wisdom and direction in his work at our new FM stations in Ukraine, with our staff in various cities, and for safety in traveling.

Thursday – 15

“Dear friends, thank you very much for your wonderful programs in the Ukrainian language. I listen to you regularly because my heart needs the Word of God every day. Your broadcasts are like an angel from the Bible who was flying in heaven, preaching an eternal Gospel to those who live on earth.” Aleksandr from Chernovtsy, Ukraine. Praise the Lord for this!

Friday – 16

Please pray for Oleg Shevkun, FEBC’s senior broadcaster in Moscow. His programs, especially for non-believers, help listeners find out more about God and salvation. Oleg invites non-believing students to read the Bible on the air. They read it for the first time in their lives and then ask many questions. They have a good conversation on the air and Oleg explains the Word of God to young people. Pray that God will continue to bless Oleg and his listeners.

Saturday – 17

“Thank you, friends, for your wonderful broadcasts that led me to the Lord! Please pray for salvation of my parents. They began to listen to your programs, too, but still haven’t accepted Jesus into their hearts.” Mikhail from Slavyansk, Ukraine.

Sunday – 18

Please pray for Viktor Kurilenko, FEBC’s director in Slavyansk, Ukraine, and his staff. Pray that many listeners will come to faith in God at this difficult time for the country. Thousands of refugees who live in Slavyansk now have an opportunity to listen to FEBC broadcasts.

Monday – 19

“Thank you, friends, for your broadcasts that led me to the Lord! Unfortunately, my husband does not believe in God. Please pray that God will touch his heart and he will repent of his sins and come to faith in God. Also, pray that God will heal my stomach.” Oksana from Ukraine.

Tuesday – 20

Please pray for Evgeny Goltsov, FEBC’s program coordinator in Kiev, where we produce programs in the Ukrainian language. Pray that God will bless Evgeny and all the staff who work in our Kiev studio.

Wednesday – 21

“Somebody, please help me! I don’t know what to do, how can I forgive myself? Recently my dog died. The problem is that I stopped loving her and I even wanted her to die. It started when I gave birth to our second child. I needed to spend more time with my little children and I did not have time for our dog. One day our faithful dog became ill, but we did not take her to the doctor. Finally, after 10 days, we took her to the animal hospital, but that night she died. When I was sick and could not walk, she would come to our room and lie next to me in bed. She understood that I was not feeling well. Oh Lord, how can I forgive myself?" Tatiana from Moscow. Tatiana listens to FEBC broadcasts on the Internet. Please pray that she will commit her life to Jesus and follow Him. Pray that God will give her peace in this troubling situation.

Thursday – 22

Please pray for the special Christmas broadcast in Kyrgyzstan. Even though Islam is major religion in the Kyrgyzstan, due to Russians living there, the country also celebrates Christmas. This is a great opportunity for us to talk about the meaning of Christmas and share Christ as Savior and Lord with our listeners.

Friday – 23

We thank God for our newest FM-88.3 station in Toktogul, in southern Kyrgyzstan. We trust that this will be a special Christmas for our listeners there. Please pray that many of them will accept Jesus as their personal Savior.

Saturday – 24

Please pray for Ruslan, one of our key leaders in Almaty, Kazakhstan. Ruslan is also beginning a weekly talk show on the Internet broadcast there. Pray for wisdom and effectiveness in the ministry.

Sunday – 25

Merry Christmas, dear Friends! Please pray for all our programmers and broadcasts on this day. We believe that many non-believers will accept Jesus as their Savior on this Christmas day. Pray for our listeners, too.

Monday – 26

Please pray for Evgeny Sarapulov, an FEBC broadcaster in Moscow. Listeners like his program Great Day because they receive encouragement and answers to their questions through Evgeny's broadcasts. Many of them have become Christians. Pray that God will continue to bless Evgeny's work and his listeners. Also, pray for his family: they have four children.

Tuesday – 27

"Dear friends, please pray for salvation of my son and daughter-in-law. Also, please pray for my health. I listen to your programs regularly and believe in your prayers." Svetlana from Slavyansk, Ukraine.

Wednesday – 28

Please pray for Ulanbek Karypov, FEBC program director in Central Asia. Pray for God's wisdom and blessings in his work, so that many Muslims will accept Jesus Christ as their Savior. Also, pray for Ulanbek's family: they have four children.

Thursday – 29

Please pray for Lyudmila from Ukraine. Her life is very difficult because she lives in the war zone. Pray that God will give her strength and comfort and protect her from evil.

Friday – 30

Please pray for Grigory Burlaka, FEBC manager in Chernovtsy, Ukraine, and his new staff. They are producing some new programs in the Ukrainian language. Pray for God's blessings and wisdom for them, so that many listeners will commit their lives to Jesus.

Saturday – 31

Please pray for Eila, our Internet programmer in Moscow. We have thousands of new Internet listeners who need salvation through Jesus Christ. Pray that God will continue to bless Eila's work for Him, so that many non-believers will come to know the Lord and serve Him.
