

FEBC Russian Ministries Prayer Focus

December 2018

Saturday – 1

Please pray for Victor Akhterov, as he is working with FEBC-Ukraine's Board of directors. "We are moving ahead with our strategic plan, hoping to bring the Good News into the homes of 4 million Ukrainians by 2030. Our goal is to connect them with local evangelical churches," said Victor. Also, pray for safe travel for Victor and his family.

Sunday – 2

We continue to raise support for our most urgent need, the Media Evangelism Center in Kiev, Ukraine. We need a location for the best evangelists of Ukraine to work, using FEBC's media tools, including well-equipped studios that will help us provide reliable 24/7 audio and video to dozens of radio stations, social networks and web ministries. Please pray that God will fulfill this need.

Monday – 3

Please pray for Dr. Evgeny Sarapulov, an FEBC broadcaster in Moscow, whose daily morning show, Great Day, is very popular. Evgeny reaches millions, especially young people who need salvation through Jesus Christ. Pray that God will continue to bless Evgeny, his work and his family.

Tuesday – 4

Please pray for Nurlan, our national director in Kazakhstan, as he recently experienced some serious health issues. Pray for God's healing. Also, please pray for the broadcast in the Kazakh language, which is heard online.

Wednesday – 5

God made it possible for us to open our seventh radio station in Pokrovsk, Ukraine. Please continue to pray that many Ukrainians who live in this city will hear the Good News through FEBC broadcasts and accept Jesus Christ as their Savior.

Thursday – 6

Please continue to pray for financial support for FEBC Russian Ministries. Because of your prayers and financial support, we can preach the Gospel to millions of Russians and Ukrainians who need Jesus. We are very thankful to God for you and for the opportunity to serve Him.

Friday – 7

Please pray for Rudi Wiens, as he will be traveling to Kazakhstan and Kyrgyzstan this month. There are many meetings scheduled at the end of this year. We thank God for all the accomplishments that took place in 2018 especially the opening of the FM station in Talas in western Kyrgyzstan.

Saturday – 8

Please pray for Ulanbek who is assisting Rudi Wiens with the development of our ministry throughout Central Asia. Ulanbek will also travel with Rudi in Central Asia.

Sunday – 9

Please pray for Kseniya from Ukraine who is struggling with depression after getting a divorce. Pray that she will be encouraged and blessed by God.

Monday – 10

Please pray for Oleg Cherny, FEBC Russian Ministries' administrative director. Pray for God's wisdom and blessings on his work, especially when he interacts with government officials on behalf of our ministry. Pray for God's protecting of our staff and ministry. Also, continue to pray for Oleg's father's health.

Tuesday – 11

Please pray for Evgeny from Russia. He began to listen to FEBC broadcasts and finally agreed to go to church. Pray that Evgeny will accept Jesus and commit his life to Him.

Wednesday – 12

Please pray for Tatiana from Ukraine. Recently she lost her son and stopped attending church. Pray that God will heal Tatiana's soul and bring her back to church.

Thursday – 13

Please pray for Alexey Vlasikhin, FEBC's manager and program director in St. Petersburg, and his staff. They use social media and online broadcast tools to preach the Gospel to millions. Pray that God will bless Alexey, his family and listeners.

Friday – 14

Please pray for Alena from Siberia, who is a former drug addict. Struggling with deep depression, she accidentally found FEBC broadcasts online and began to listen to our programs and pray at home. 'Thank you, friends, for your programs and sermons that helped me get my life back. The Bible is my favorite book now and I read it every day,' says Alena. Our staff helped her find an evangelical church that she attends. Pray that God will completely heal Alena and bless her life.

Saturday – 15

"Dear friends, thank you very much for your amazing broadcasts! I listen to you online and tell people about your ministry. Many of them have begun to listen and like your program, especially the Bible teaching. Now we understand many things in the Bible and want to learn more and more because it is the Word of God. I thank God for your talents! Please pray that my friends will commit their lives to Jesus." Daria from Penza, Russia.

Sunday – 16

Please pray for Victor Akhterov, as he continues to invest in reaching listeners through new media in Russia, where political pressure against evangelicals is increasing. "Last month, our programs were listened to more than ten million times," said Victor. Please pray for those listeners.

Monday – 17

Irina from St. Petersburg began to listen to FEBC broadcasts just one month ago. Her daughter is completely blind and our programs encouraged and helped her. "I did not understand many things, but now I know I desperately need God. Thank you, friends, for your help," says Irina. Please pray that Irina will come to faith in God and serve Him.

Tuesday – 18

Please pray for Alex Pastushak from Ukraine who has several years experience evangelizing people online. Alex led many people to Jesus and he continues to correspond with those who need to be saved. Pray that they will accept Jesus and follow Him.

Wednesday – 19

Please pray for Eduard Kurilenko, the administrative director in Slavyansk, Ukraine. Pray that God will give him wisdom and blessings in his work in various cities of Ukraine, so that many listeners will become Christians through FEBC broadcasts. Also, pray for Eduard's family: his wife, Nadezhda, and their four children.

Thursday – 20

Please pray for people who came to know Christ in Russia and Ukraine this year. May the Lord help them grow in their faith.

Friday – 21

Please pray for Vladimir Savenkov, our missionary in Ukraine. He and his wife have adopted many children, and Vladimir also interacts with many children who live in orphanages. Pray that this Christmas many children will accept Jesus into their hearts through FEBC children's programs. Also, pray for Vladimir's family.

Saturday – 22

Please pray for Nikolay and Marina, a Christian couple who live in Russia. They already raised their own children and now they want to adopt one child from an orphanage. Because they are not a young couple, they called our studio for advice. After making the decision to adopt a child, they began attending a special school for foster parents. Pray that God will help them raise one more child for the Lord.

Sunday – 23

Please pray for Maxim Shargaev, FEBC-Kiev program director. Pray that many Ukrainians will come to faith in God through FEBC programs produced in Kiev.

Monday – 24

“For more than twenty years I could not get pregnant, and now God gave me an amazing gift: I will have a baby! This is a miracle in my life! Thank you, friends, for your prayers and broadcasts!” Tatiana from Ukraine.

Let us thank God for His blessings.

Tuesday – 25

Merry Christmas, dear Friends! Please pray for FEB’s Christmas broadcasts. It is a great opportunity to share the Gospel with our non-churched audience.

Wednesday – 26

Please pray for Svetlana from Russia. She was born into a Christian family and is a pastor’s daughter, but she is far from God and does not want to go to church. Pray that she will accept God’s love and will serve Him.

Thursday – 27

Please pray for Olesya Dmitrieva, our programmer in Slavyansk, Eastern Ukraine. She produces programs for families and soldiers, which are very useful. Many families’ problems have been resolved and many soldiers have begun listening to FEBC broadcasts. Pray that they will come to faith in God and for peace in Ukraine.

Friday – 28

Please pray for Janysh, FEBC’s station manager in Kyrgyzstan, and his family. Recently, his two-year-old daughter, Adele, fell, causing a concussion. She is in the hospital now with her mom. Doctors said she needs an operation to remove a hematoma. Please pray for doctors and her parents to make the right decision and for God’s healing upon little Adele.

Saturday – 29

Please pray for Sergey Burlaka, FEBC’s leader in Kiev, Ukraine. Sergey produces videos and has many responsibilities in the ministry. Pray that many people who need salvation will come to know the Lord through these videos. Pray for God’s blessings upon Sergey and his family.

Sunday – 30

Please pray for Dr. Tanya Gorbacheva who helps Russians families in their time of need and to also find salvation through Jesus Christ. Many of her listeners have begun to listen to FEBC broadcasts and attend church. Pray that God will continue to bless Tanya and her work.

Monday – 31

Please pray for Rev. Oleg Shevkun, FEBC’s senior broadcaster in Moscow. He works successfully with non-Christian university students who participate in his programs. Many of them have accepted Jesus into their hearts. Pray that this Christmas season many more young people will commit their lives to Jesus.
