

FEBC Russian Ministries Prayer Focus January 2018

Monday – 1

Happy New Year, dear Friends! Let us pray that this year thousands of FEBC's listeners will discover for themselves a new life, the way of salvation through Jesus Christ.

Tuesday – 2

Please continue to pray for the financial stability of FEBC Russian Ministries. Because of your generous support and prayers, we can preach the Gospel to millions in Russia and Ukraine. Praise the Lord and thank you very much for your prayers and support!

Wednesday – 3

"Our 1-year old nephew, Elisey, overturned a pan with boiling oil on his face and neck. He is suffering from second degree burns and doctors did everything they could. Please pray that God will heal our little boy." Elizaveta from St. Petersburg.

Thursday – 4

"Dear friends, thank you very much for your programs that give me comfort and strength. By listening to your programs, I repented of my sins and asked Jesus to be my Savior. Please pray that God will heal and cleanse my soul and mind. I want to serve the Lord with all my heart and mind." Yaroslav from Ukraine.

Friday – 5

Please pray for Eduard Kurilenko, the administrative director in Slavyansk, Ukraine. Pray that God will give him wisdom and bless his work in various cities of Ukraine, so that many people will accept Jesus and will follow Him. Pray for thousands refugees who came to Slavyansk during the war. Many of them began listening to FEBC radio and attended an evangelical church. Also, pray for peace in Ukraine.

Saturday – 6

"I have difficulties in my life and some people told me, 'Hang yourself and you will not bother your family anymore.' Thanks to my husband, he came home in time and stopped me. After this, I began listening to your broadcasts on the Internet and I understood that God saved my life because He loves me. I will continue to listen to your programs because my soul needs it. Please pray that God will give me peace and comfort." Marina from St. Petersburg.

Sunday – 7

Merry Russian Christmas, dear Friends! Please pray that this Christmas season thousands of new listeners will discover the reason for this holiday and accept Jesus into their hearts.

Monday – 8

“For several months after my divorce, I was struggling with depression. I couldn’t work and had no relationship with people. Recently I began to listen to FEBC broadcasts on the Internet and I called your studio to talk to somebody about my situation. After talking with the host of the program, I got help and was encouraged. I need Jesus in my life. Please pray for me.” Geser from Russia.

Tuesday – 9

Please pray for Gleb Ilinsky, an FEBC broadcaster in St. Petersburg. He is losing his vision and eye surgery did not help. Pray that God will help Gleb and restore his vision.

Wednesday – 10

“I can’t forgive my father. My mom got divorce because he wanted to kill her. My dad beat and humiliated me when I was little. Now he wants to have a relationship with me but I do not even want to see him. I listen to your broadcasts on the Internet regularly and you always say that we have to forgive. I do not know what to do.” Antonina from Russia.

Please pray that Antonina will come to faith in God, so that He will help her forgive her father.

Thursday – 11

Please pray for Alexey Vlasihin, FEBC manager in St. Petersburg, as he works with our staff in Russia to help produce programs for families. These programs are very popular and listeners call the studio all the time looking for help and answers to their questions. Pray that they will come to faith in God and find help and comfort in Him.

Friday – 12

FEBC-Russia is operating in a very restrictive environment. Please pray for God's protection for our broadcasters and for freedom in Russia to continue.

Saturday – 13

Please pray for Natalia Chetverina, an FEBC programmer in Moscow. Her program Hope for the Heart is popular and helps listeners understand God’s love. Pray that many people will become believers through Natalia’s broadcasts. Also, pray that God will provide good health for her.

Sunday – 14

Mikhail, the manager of a rehab center in Slavyansk, Ukraine, asked us to pray for him and his team. “For many years we have helped drug addicts and alcoholics change their lives and become free from drugs. Hundreds of them were saved and became members of evangelical churches. Please pray that God will continue to bless our work spiritually and financially, so that many more people will be saved and serve the Lord.

Monday – 15

“I thank God for your broadcasts. Preaching the Gospel, you saved many lives, including mine. I am so glad that I am a Christian now and I serve the Lord. I listen to your programs regularly and I am becoming a better and better person every time I listen to you. It is so good to belong to God, to our Heavenly Father. Please pray that God will heal my lungs.” Anatoly from Ukraine.

Tuesday – 16

“Thank you very much for your broadcasts. I need your support like never before. Please pray for my family; my husband left us. I will continue to listen to your programs because they give me comfort and I believe that God will help us.” Ruzanna from Moscow.

Wednesday – 17

Please pray for Oleg Cherny, FEBC Russian Ministries’ administrative director, as he has many work responsibilities in Russia, which include interacting with the Russian government when they come to check FEBC’s ministry in Russia. Pray for God’s wisdom and blessings for Oleg in his work.

Thursday – 18

FEBC-Ukraine's most important project for 2018 is the office building in Kiev. We are praying and raising support for the Kiev Evangelism Center. We will be able to serve not only Ukraine, but also Russia, through this facility. Please support this vision in your prayers.

Friday – 19

Please pray for Victor Akhterov, FEBC Russian Ministries’ director, as he is leading the team in Russia and Ukraine during this exciting and challenging time. Pray for wisdom and protection from God. Also, pray for Victor’s family: his wife Oksana and their two sons, Dennis and Stephen.

Saturday – 20

Please pray for FEBC's plans to open two new radio stations in Ukraine in 2018. Pray that God will help us reach these Ukrainian cities as soon as possible.

Sunday – 21

Please support the families of our leaders and broadcasters by praying for protection, blessing, and spiritual growth. Being at the front lines of the battle, we feel your prayer support.

Monday – 22

“I like your programs in the Ukrainian language. Because of you, I am a Christian now and a follower of Jesus Christ. Not long ago I began to listen to FEBC broadcasts and I realized that I need Jesus in my life because without Him my life was not complete. I listen to your programs regularly and learn more and more from your sermons: how to be a good child of God and live according to His laws, how to love people even though they are not good. Please pray for my grandson. I want him to be saved, too.” Petr from Chernovtsy, Ukraine.

Tuesday – 23

Please pray for Nadia Kurilenko, the host of FEBC's program in Slavyansk, Eastern Ukraine. Listeners like her programs and call the studio to talk to Nadia about their lives. Pray that many non-believers will find salvation for their souls through her programs.

Wednesday – 24

"Thank you very much for your wonderful broadcasts! It is good for my heart to hear the Word of God in your programs. Your programs changed my life. Every time I listen to you, I find something new and useful for my soul. Thanks to your preaching, I am a believer now and I love my Lord with all my heart. Please pray for my health." Mikhail from Chernovtsy.

Thursday – 25

Please pray for Ulanbek Karypov, FEBC's program director in Central Asia. Pray that God will bless his work, so that many Muslims in these countries will accept Jesus as their Savior. Also, pray for the health of his wife and their children.

Friday – 26

"Thank you, friends, for your programs that help me a lot. I am a new listener and I am so glad that I began to listen to you because it is good for my soul. Now I understand that I need to change many things in my life if I want to be in Heaven after this life on earth. I have learned from your programs that God loves me like nobody else, that is why I want to be His child. Listening to your programs, I repented of my sins and I believe that God forgave me. Please pray that I will be strong in my faith." Galina from Chernovtsy, Ukraine.

Saturday – 27

Please pray for Sergey Burlaka, FEBC's leader in Kiev, Ukraine. Sergey produces videos for the ministry. Pray that many non-believers who watch those videos will come to know the Lord and receive salvation through Jesus Christ.

Sunday – 28

Please pray for FEBC teams in Moscow and St. Petersburg, as they find new ways to reach more people in 2018. Today, we have more than two million listeners every month in Russia, as we are using new technologies to reach people. However, online evangelism is also under scrutiny by the Russian government.

Monday – 29

Russian presidential elections are scheduled for March 18, 2018. The current president, Vladimir Putin, is the likely winner. Please pray for God's will to be done. Also, please pray that in the next few years, there will be more freedom to preach the Gospel, not less.

Tuesday – 30

Please pray for Janysh, FEBC's station manager in Kyrgyzstan, and for all his staff. Pray that through their work many Muslims will accept Jesus as their Savior, even though this is a challenge in a Muslim country. However, nothing is impossible for God!

Wednesday – 31

We are constantly working on helping team members, both radio programmers and technicians, to raise their professional skills. In addition to regular internal seminars, we help our team members receive theological and professional education. Please pray and support our educational fund for Russia and Ukraine.
