

FEBC Russian Ministries Prayer Focus March 2016

Tuesday – 1

Please pray for Rudi Wiens who is overseeing the development of FEBC's outreach in Central Asia. Pray for God's wisdom in his work and for all our staff in Kyrgyzstan and Kazakhstan.

Wednesday – 2

Please pray for Janysh, our FEBC manager in Kyrgyzstan. Pray that God will give him wisdom and blessings in his work, so that many non-believers in this Muslim country will accept Jesus as their Savior.

Thursday – 3

"Please pray for my friend, Lyudmila, who is in the hospital now because of stroke. Pray for her healing and salvation of her soul." Alla from St. Petersburg.

Friday – 4

Please pray for Alexey Vlasihin, director of FEBC-St. Petersburg, and the staff. Pray that through FEBC broadcasts in this large city, many people will be saved and follow Jesus. Also, pray for Alexey's family: Alexey and his wife Natasha have two children.

Saturday – 5

Please pray for Valentina from Ukraine. She is suffering from back pain. Pray that God will heal her.

Sunday – 6

"Thank you, friends, for your programs that led me to the Lord! Unfortunately, my wife, Valentina, and my daughter, Oksana, are non-believers. Please pray that they will come to faith in God and serve Him." Gennady from Ukraine.

Monday – 7

Please pray for Evgeny Goltsov, FEBC's program coordinator in Kiev, Ukraine. Pray that through FEBC broadcasts in the Ukrainian language, many listeners will discover the way of salvation and accept Jesus Christ in their hearts.

Tuesday – 8

"Please pray for my new neighbors. They were involved in a car accident and their children were injured. Pray that God will heal their children and for salvation of this family." Uliya from St. Petersburg.

Wednesday – 9

Please pray for Zhanibek, 24, from Kazakhstan. His mother wants him to attend church, but he argues with her. Even though he goes to church, he usually leaves the service and spends time with his friends. Pray that God will change his heart and lead him to the Lord.

Thursday – 10

Please pray for Oleg Cherny, FEBC Russian Ministries' administrative director who has many responsibilities and travels a lot. Pray that God will bless his work in Moscow, Norilsk, Michurinsk, St. Petersburg and Tambov. Also pray for his family.

Friday – 11

“My parents got divorced two years ago. After this, my brother, 16, enrolled in college and went to a different city. When he comes home, our mom usually spends time with her new friend. My brother is struggling with depression. Recently, he was taken to the hospital because he took some drugs. Please pray for him. I listen to your broadcasts on the Internet and like it very much. Thank you!” Artem from Estonia.

Saturday – 12

Please pray that God will continue to bless FEBC Russian Ministries financially, so we can continue to preach the Gospel to millions of non-believers in Russia and Ukraine who need salvation. Thank you, friends, for your prayers and support!

Sunday – 13

“Please pray for my teacher, Aleksandr, who is in a coma. Doctors want to turn off his life support. Pray that God will heal Aleksandr and give him the opportunity to repent of his sins and accept Jesus.” Lyudmila from St. Petersburg.

Monday – 14

Please pray for Elena Bakanova, FEBC's new programmer in Kiev, Ukraine. Pray for God's wisdom and blessings on Elena's work so that many Ukrainians will hear her messages and be led to faith in God.

Tuesday – 15

“My daughter is 18 and she always lies to me about everything. I have talked to her many times regarding this and asked her to tell me the truth, but nothing has changed. Please pray for us. And thank you, friends, for your wonderful programs that help me a lot in my life!” Vera from Moscow.

Wednesday – 16

“I know how hard it is to live if there is no desire to live at all. At 40, I became disabled – and it is for the rest of my life. I wanted to commit suicide. Fortunately, I discovered your station. Now I listen to you regularly and receive strength and comfort from your programs. I understand that I have to live, as it is God’s plan for my life. Please pray that God will help me to become a good person, change me and heal my soul.” Aleksandr from Moscow.

Thursday – 17

“I live in Japan and I listen to your broadcasts through the Internet. Thank you, friends, for your amazing programs that encourage me every day! I can’t imagine my life without you! I am so glad that we are Christians and we serve the Lord together! Please pray for the salvation of my friends.” Nadezhda from Japan.

Friday – 18

Please pray for Victor Akhterov, FEBC Russian Ministries’ director, as he has many responsibilities for developing our ministry in Russia and Ukraine. Pray for God’s wisdom and guidance in his work, and for his strength and stamina when he is traveling.

Saturday – 19

Please pray for our new, young staff in Chernivtsy, Ukraine: Vadim, Aleksandr, Bogdan and Nadezhda. After attending the programming seminar in Kiev, conducted by Victor Akhterov, they are so excited and want to serve the Lord with all their strength. Pray that many non-believers will come to faith in God through their ministry.

Sunday – 20

Please continue to pray for Sergey Burlaka, FEBC’s leader in Kiev, Ukraine, as he has many ministry responsibilities and is working on several video projects. Pray that many people will come to faith in God through Sergey’s ministry.

Monday – 21

“Listening to your program, I decided to become a Christian, but my wife doesn’t want to hear about it. She is a Muslim and she hates Christianity. We have two children. I do not know what to do. Please pray for us. Pray that my wife will understand that we need salvation and accept Jesus Christ in her heart.” Rinat from Moscow.

Tuesday – 22

Please pray for Oleg Bindasov, FEBC’s manager in Moscow, and the staff. Pray that God will use their programs to transform listeners’ lives so that people will accept Jesus and serve Him.

Wednesday – 23

“Please pray for my friend, Boris. He is a believer, but recently he became homeless. Now he is in the hospital because of an illness. Please pray that God will heal Boris’ soul and body.” Andrey from Russia.

Thursday – 24

Please pray for Grigory Burlaka, FEBC manager in Chernovtsy, Western Ukraine. Due to FEBC’s broadcasts in this city for many years, thousands of non-believers have become Christians. Now we are trying to establish an FM station in this part of Ukraine. Please continue to pray for this.

Friday – 25

“I am not a Christian but I like to listen to your broadcasts. In addition, I read my Bible. I have a question: can I read a written prayer? I have one, but I’m not sure it is OK for me to read it because I’m not a believer.” Rustam from Moscow. Please pray that Rustam will accept Jesus into his heart and become a Christian.

Saturday – 26

“Your broadcast is encouraging me and giving me strength. I love your programs! I live in Sweden and listen to you on the Internet. It is a great pleasure to study the Bible with you and understand more and more about this amazing Book. Thank you, friends, and may God richly bless you!” Margarita from Sweden.

Praise the Lord for this!

Sunday – 27

Happy Easter, dear friends! Please pray that this day many people listening to FEBC broadcasts in Russia and Ukraine will accept Jesus Christ as their personal Savior.

Monday – 28

Please pray for Alina from Ukraine. “Everything is going bad,” she says. Pray that God will heal her body and soul.

Tuesday – 29

Please pray for Evgeny Sarapulov, an FEBC broadcaster and psychologist in Moscow. Only God knows how many people have committed their lives to Jesus because of Evgeny’s program called Good Day. Pray that God will continue to bless his work and family: Evgeny and his wife, Svetlana, have four children.

Wednesday – 30

“Thank you, friends, for your broadcasts that I love very much and I listen to regularly! Recently my neighbor, Svetlana, became your listener, too. Please pray that she will accept Jesus as her Savior and serve Him.” Natalia from Ukraine.

Thursday – 31

Please pray for Irina Rodukova, an FEBC broadcaster in Moscow. Irina hosts several programs and needs God's wisdom and blessings. Pray that God will bless her personal life and her work.
