

FEBC Russian Ministries Prayer Focus March 2017

Wednesday – 1

Please pray for the political situation in Kazakhstan. Due to some extreme religious activities, the government recently implemental new laws that make it more difficult for our ministry there.

Thursday – 2

Please pray for Evgeny Sarapulov, an FEBC broadcaster in Moscow. Thousands of listeners have discovered Jesus through his daily program Great Day. Pray that God will continue to bless Evgeny's programs and his listeners. Also, pray for his family.

Friday – 3

Please pray for FEBC-Russia's remaining FM stations to be protected from government interference as attacks on Christian broadcasts continue. Pray that religious freedom will continue in Russia and many non-believers will come to faith in God trough FEBC broadcasts there.

Saturday – 4

Please pray for Irina from Moscow. She is struggling with depression because of many difficulties in her life. Her mother became ill and needs somebody to take care of her. Irina left her husband 14 years ago and has raised her son alone. Please pray that God will help Irina in her needs, give her the desire to live and bless her life. Pray that Irina will continue to listen to FEBC broadcasts and accept Jesus as her personal Savior.

Sunday – 5

Please pray for Aleksey Vlasihin, FEBC manager in St. Petersburg, and his team, as they use new technologies to reach people for Jesus: social media and online broadcast tools that are reaching hundreds of thousands. Many young people listen to our broadcasts on the Internet and they have come to faith in God. Pray that God will continue to bless their work.

Monday – 6

“Thank you, friends, for your programs that I listen to regularly. Please pray for salvation of my son who desperately needs Jesus. Sometimes he listen to FEBC broadcasts and he likes your programs very much. Pray that he will accept Jesus and start a new life with Him.” Efrosiniya from Chernovtsy, Ukraine.

Tuesday – 7

Please continue to pray for Oleg Cherny, FEBC Russian Ministries' administrative director, as he is very busy at work all the time. He also interacts with government officials on behalf of the ministry. Pray for God's protection and blessings on Oleg's work.

Wednesday – 8

Please pray for Semion from Chernovtsy, Ukraine, and for his prison ministry. Last year, several people in prison repented of their sins and accepted Jesus into their hearts. Prisoners have an opportunity to listen to FEBC broadcasts there. Now the situation has changed a little due to new leadership. Pray that Semion will be able to continue to minister to people in this prison.

Thursday – 9

Please pray for Victor Akhterov, FEBC Russian Ministries' director, as he develops FEBC's ministry in Russia and Ukraine. We thank God for a new FM station in Odessa, Ukraine. Pray for God's wisdom for Victor and staff in Odessa, so that many listeners will find freedom in Jesus through FEBC broadcasts in this area.

Friday – 10

Please continue to pray for the financial support of FEBC Russian Ministries. Because of you, many non-believers have received salvation in Jesus Christ and they serve Him. Pray that God will bless us financially, so we can continue to preach the Gospel to millions who need Jesus.

Saturday – 11

“Thank you, friends, for your programs and prayers! Please continue to pray for my nephew. He is a Christian and he has prayed for people's needs a lot. Now he needs our prayers. Please pray that God will heal his body and bless his life.” Evgeny from Ukraine.

Sunday – 12

Please continue to pray for Vladimir Savenkov, our missionary in Ukraine who promotes adoption on the radio. He and his wife, Elena, became foster and adoptive parents to six children. Vladimir also serves children in orphanages. Many of those children have accepted Jesus into their hearts. Praise God for this! Please pray for Vladimir, his family and orphans.

Monday – 13

“I haven't had a relationship with my brother for several years. This happened after I had an unsuccessful back operation when I was in high school and became disabled. Many students turned away from me, including my brother. I was very hurt. After this, my brother sometimes talked to me, but then offended me repeatedly. My question is: how many times should I forgive him, and should I forgive him at all in this situation? Thank you, friends, for your programs that I like very much.” Elena from St. Petersburg.

Please pray that Elena will come to faith in God and understand the power of forgiveness. Pray that she will forgive her brother.

Tuesday – 14

Ulanbek and Rudi Wiens are sharing about the FEBC's ministry in Central Asia with friends in Ontario, Canada. We trust that it will be of encouragement to all our supporters there. Please pray for them.

Wednesday – 15

Please pray for Rev. Oleg Shevkun, FEBC's senior broadcaster in Moscow. Many young people listen to his programs on the Internet and come to faith in God. Pray that God will continue to bless his programs and listeners.

Thursday – 16

“Hello, friends! I am not a Christian, but I listen to your broadcasts because my friend wants me to do this. Honestly, I like your programs. He wants me to come to his church, too. I am an atheist, and if it is OK, I will go to church. I am not married and live my life like many others in this world.” Andrey from St. Petersburg. Please pray that Andrey will accept Jesus and be saved.

Friday – 17

Please pray for Janysh, FEBC manager in Kyrgyzstan. Pray that God will bless his work and give him wisdom and ability, so that many listeners will accept Jesus Christ in this Muslim country.

Saturday – 18

Please pray for the new FEBC station in Kramatorsk, Eastern Ukraine. People can listen to these broadcasts on both sides of the line of fire in this war zone. Pray that many will receive salvation in Jesus through FEBC broadcasts in Kramatorsk.

Sunday – 19

Please pray for Eduard Kurilenko, the manager of FEBC-Slavyansk station in Ukraine. Pray that God will bless his work in Slavyansk, Kramatorsk and Odessa. Also, pray for his family: Eduard and his wife, Nadezhda, have four little children.

Monday – 20

“My husband is 70 years old and we have lived together for 46 years now. He still works and I do everything for him at home. We have two children, a son and daughter. The problem is that he does not love me anymore. It hurts. I want to run away. Please pray for us; I want to save my marriage. And thank you, friends, for your wonderful broadcasts!” Nora from St. Petersburg.

Tuesday – 21

Please pray for Ulanbek, our Kyrgyz program director. Pray for God's blessings and wisdom in his work and for safety in traveling. Also, pray for his family: Ulanbek and his wife, Asul, have three young children.

Wednesday – 22

Nikita from St. Petersburg listens to FEBC broadcasts regularly. Even though he likes our programs, he does not love God. He lives with a grudge against God because God did not give him what he was asking for. Please pray that Nikita will accept God's love and His forgiveness.

Thursday – 23

Late March we scheduled discipleship seminars for people in Almaty and Bishkek. This is also a way to recruit broadcasters and talk-show hosts for our programming. Please pray that the right people will participate and it will provide us with co-workers for our broadcasts. Please also pray for Willi Daiker who facilitates those seminars.

Friday – 24

“Dear brothers and sisters, thank you very much for your programs that I listen to regularly. Please pray for my son, Aleksandr, who is an alcoholic. Pray that he will repent of his sins and come to know the Lord.” Valentina from Chernovtsy, Ukraine.

Saturday – 25

Please pray for Viktor Kurilenko, FEBC's director in Slavyansk, Eastern Ukraine, and his staff. Pray that God will protect them and their families at this difficult time for the country. Pray for God's blessings in their work, so that many non-believers will find real freedom in Jesus.

Sunday – 26

FEBC's manager in Kazakhstan, Nurlan, asked us to pray for his sister, Zhamila, and her family. “Please pray for my sister, her husband and their two children. Pray that they will accept Jesus Christ as their personal Savior. I want them to serve the Lord and love Him,” says Nurlan.

Monday – 27

“Please pray for my niece, Nadezhda. She is 45 and she underwent two operations. She is a good wife, mother and soon will be a grandmother. Pray that God will completely heal my niece.” Nadezhda from Moscow.

Tuesday – 28

Please pray for Grigory Burlaka, FEBC manager in Chernovtsy, Ukraine, and his staff, especially for some new young producers. They preach the Gospel through their Ukrainian-language programs and invite listeners to church. Pray that many non-believers will accept Christ and serve Him.

Wednesday – 29

Please pray for Taras from Chernovtsy, Ukraine. He is a minister and he prays for people and serves them for a long time. Recently, he had an operation. Pray that God will fully restore his health.

Thursday – 30

“Thank you, friends, for your broadcast that I listen to on the Internet. I love your programs, especially Reading the Bible Together. This program helps me to live my life according to the Word of God. Please pray that I will be strong in the Lord.”
Marina from St. Petersburg.

Friday – 31

Please pray for Sergey Burlaka, FEBC’s leader in Kiev, Ukraine, who produces videos for the ministry. Pray for God’s blessings and guidance in his work.
