

FEBC Russian Ministries Prayer Focus May 2017

Monday – 1

We thank God for FEBC's new FM station in Shastya, Eastern Ukraine. Now thousands can hear the Good News in the city, which is control by rebels. Please pray that many of them will find freedom in Jesus Christ.

Tuesday – 2

Dear friends, please continue to pray for the financial stability of FEBC Russian Ministries. Because of your generous support and prayers, many listeners came to faith in God through FEBC broadcasts in Russia and Ukraine. Thank you very much for your prayers and support!

Wednesday – 3

Please pray for Eduard Kurilenko, the manager of FEBC-Slavyansk station. Pray that God will bless his work in different cities of Ukraine, so that many non-believers will accept Jesus. Also, pray for peace in Ukraine.

Thursday – 4

“Thank you, friends, for your broadcasts that I listen to on the Internet. Because of you, I became a Christian! Please pray for salvation of my parents; I want them to serve the Lord. Pray that they will stop judging me because I became a believer.” Aleksandra from Moscow.

Friday – 5

Please pray for Evgeny Sarapulov, an FEBC broadcaster in Moscow. On his daily program, Great Day, he answers many difficult questions from listeners. As a psychologist, Evgeny knows how to talk to non-believers about salvation through Jesus Christ; many of his listeners became Christians and they serve the Lord. Pray that God will continue to bless Evgeny's work and his family: they have four children.

Saturday – 6

“Thank you, friends, for your programs that I listen to on the Internet. I like your preaching and believe in your prayers. Please pray that God will heal me. My blood pressure is too high and doctors do not know what happened to me. I spent two weeks in a hospital, but I am not feeling better.” Nikita from Moscow.

Sunday – 7

Please pray for Oleg Cherny, FEBC Russian Ministries' administrative director, as he has many work responsibilities in various Russian and Ukrainian cities. Pray that God will give him strength and stamina he needs in his work; also pray for his family.

Monday – 8

Please continue to pray for people in Ukraine who live close to the military action and can now listen to FEBC broadcasts. There are more than a million potential listeners in that region, most of whom have never heard a coherent presentation of the Good News.

Tuesday – 9

"I just began to listen to your broadcasts on the Internet. I am not a Christian but I believe you will pray for me. My husband left my child and me and went to another woman. My parents became seriously ill and I lost my job. Please pray for my family. I want my husband to come back to me." Natalia from Moscow.

Wednesday – 10

Please pray for FEBC's ministry in Siberia, where we broadcast several hours per day on multiple FM stations. Pray for the freedom for us to continue.

Thursday – 11

Aleksandr from St. Petersburg is not a believer, but he listens to FEBC broadcasts regularly. "If God gives to his children everything they need, then why do they have to work? Jesus said, 'Whoever slaps you on your right cheek, turn to him the other also'. Is it possible to live in this world according to the New Testament?" asks Aleksandr. Please pray that Aleksandr will accept Jesus and His love.

Friday – 12

Please pray for Victor Akhterov, FEBC Russian Ministries' director, as he carries many responsibilities for developing our ministry in Russia and Ukraine. Pray for strength and blessings for Victor and safety in traveling, as he needs to work with FEBC staff in different cities. Also, pray for Victor's family: his wife Oksana and their two sons, Dennis and Stephen.

Saturday – 13

"Thank you, friends, for your broadcasts that I have listened for many years. I know that God is with you and He helps people in need. Please pray for my brother, who is ill. Pray that God will completely heal him and bless his life." Lyudmila from Ukraine.

Sunday – 14

Please pray for Evgeny Goltsov, FEBC's program coordinator in Kiev, the capital of Ukraine. Most of the radio programs for Odessa and other Ukrainian stations originate from FEBC's broadcast center in Kiev. Pray for God's blessings on the work produced in Kiev's studio.

Monday – 15

“Listening to your programs on the Internet, I made a decision to live for God. I want my mind and words to be clean and I want to live according to God’s rules. Thank you for your blessed programs! Please pray for me.” Olga from Moscow.

Tuesday – 16

Please pray for Ulanbek Karypov, FEBC’s program director in Central Asia. Pray that God will bless his work and give him wisdom and ability, so that many Muslims in this country will accept Jesus as their Savior. Also, pray for his family: Ulanbek and his wife have three little children.

Wednesday – 17

Please pray for a 2-year old child from Ukraine. His father accidentally ran him over by a car when he was driving out of their yard. The boy is in a hospital and in bad condition. Please pray for his healing and for this Christian family.

Thursday – 18

“Thank you, friends, for your programs and prayers. I am pregnant and I became ill with the flu. I can’t take any medicine; my hope is in God only. Please pray for my healing.” Olga from Moscow.

Friday – 19

Please pray for Alexey Vlasihin, FEBC manager in St. Petersburg, as he works with our staff in Russia and Ukraine to help produce programs for families and non-believers to lead them to Christ. Pray that many new listeners will come to faith in God.

Saturday – 20

“Thank you, friends, for your wonderful broadcasts! Because of your programs, I became a Christian. Please pray for salvation of my children and grandchildren. They need Jesus.” Tatiana from Slavyansk, Ukraine.

Sunday – 21

Please pray for Oleg Shevkun, FEBC’s senior broadcaster in Moscow. His program brought many new listeners to our radio audience. Pray that God will continue to bless his work for Him, so that many non-believers will accept Jesus through Oleg’s programs.

Monday – 22

“Thank you, friends, for FEBC broadcasts in the Ukrainian language. Your programs are like bread and fresh air for my soul. Please pray that God will give me more strength and bless me physically.” Aleksandr from Chernivtsy, Ukraine.

Tuesday – 23

Please pray for Sergey Burlaka, FEBC's leader in Kiev, Ukraine. Sergey produces videos for the ministry. Pray for God's blessings on his work and for safety in traveling.

Wednesday – 24

"Thank you very much for your broadcasts! I am so glad that my family serves the Lord! Your programs completely changed our lives. Please pray for salvation of my mother-in-law. I believe she will come to faith in God, too." Svetlana from Ukraine.

Thursday – 25

Please pray for Rudi Wiens who is overseeing FEBC's ministry in Central Asia. Pray for wisdom and the ability to work with key people there. Pray that many Muslims in this country will accept Jesus through FEBC's broadcasts.

Friday – 26

"Hello, friends! I am a new believer and it is not easy for me to understand the Bible. People from church suggested listening to your broadcasts. You can't imagine how glad I am to listen to your programs! That is what my soul needs. Thank you very much for your amazing teaching. Please pray that I will be strong in my faith." Anonymous from St. Petersburg.

Saturday – 27

Please pray for Ilusha, 5, who is ill with leucosis. Also, pray for salvation of his parents. They live in Ukraine, in the war zone.

Sunday – 28

Please pray for Viktor Kurilenko, FEBC's director in Slavyansk, Eastern Ukraine, and his staff. Pray that God will bless their programs, so that many non-believers, especially refugees who came to Slavyansk, will accept Jesus.

Monday – 29

"Thank you very much for your broadcasts that I listen to regularly. Your programs give me strength and comfort and I want everybody to listen to them. Please pray for my relative, Aleksandr. He needs salvation in Jesus." Tatiana from St. Petersburg.

Tuesday – 30

Please pray for Natalia Chetverina, an FEBC programmer in Moscow. Her program Hope for the Heart is very popular and helps listeners find their way to salvation. Pray that many of them will come to know the Lord through Natalia's broadcasts. Also, pray for Natalia's health.

Wednesday – 31

Please pray for Janysh, FEBC's station manager in Bishkek, and for all his staff. Pray for God's wisdom and blessings on their work, so that many Muslims will come to know the Lord through FEBC broadcasts in Kyrgyzstan
