

FEBC Russian Ministries Prayer Focus November 2016

Tuesday – 1

Please pray for Rudi Wiens who is overseeing the development of FEBC's outreach in Central Asia. Ask God to use him to bring many listeners into the Kingdom of God, especially in these Muslim dominant countries.

Wednesday – 2

In Toktogul, a region of Kyrgyzstan, the newest FEBC station was launched on October 16. Praise God that everything went according to plan, the signal was tested in the surrounding areas and all is working phenomenally, as the transmitter is 1000 watts and is the strongest signal in the region! Pray that many Muslim listeners will accept Jesus through this FEBC station.

Thursday – 3

Saule from Almaty is worried about her son. He has many friends who live a godless life. Saule has been a follower of Christ for a while now and has shared the Gospel with her son. Now that he is considered an adult, he often stays away from home, spending nights with his friends. Saule became a widow when her son was very little. Please pray for Saule and her son. Saule also participates in our Kazakh radio broadcast.

Friday – 4

Please pray for Janysh, our FEBC manager in Kyrgyzstan, as he has many responsibilities with the new station and staff there. Pray for God's blessings and wisdom for Janysh; also, pray for his family.

Saturday – 5

Please pray for Gani who lives in the Shimkent region of Kazakhstan who used to be a mullah (Muslim teacher). He became a follower of Christ a few years ago. Actually, he used to be very harsh with Christians, even persecuting them. Eventually, he came to realize that the Lord is our Savior. Sometime later, he got in trouble with his family. He stopped having fellowship with believers, got in to financial debt, and divorced his wife. He even became homeless. He is not currently living according to God's will. We hope he listens to our broadcast. Recently Gani asked us to pray for him. Please join us in our prayers for Gani that he will return to the Lord.

Sunday – 6

Please continue to pray for the potential new FM station in Kramatorsk, Ukraine, to aid people living in war zones. Pray for all our broadcasters and staff there, so that many people will find freedom in Christ through FEBC broadcasts.

Monday – 7

Please pray for Alexey Vlasihin, director of FEBC-St. Petersburg. Pray for all of our programmers and for Internet listeners, too. Most of them are young people who need salvation through Jesus Christ.

Tuesday – 8

Please pray for Vladimir from St. Petersburg who became ill and now is in the hospital. Pray that Vladimir will repent of his sins and accept Jesus. Also, pray for his healing.

Wednesday – 9

Please pray for our brother in Christ, Ruslan, who moved to Korea for work. He got in trouble financially and hopes to earn enough money to get out of debt. His wife and children are back in Almaty. Please pray for Ruslan's family that everything will work well, to God's glory.

Thursday – 10

Please pray for Oleg Cherny, FEBC Russian Ministries' administrative director who has many work responsibilities in various Russian cities. Pray that God will give him wisdom and bless his work in Moscow, Norilsk, Michurinsk, St. Petersburg, Khabarovsk and Tambov. Also, pray for his health.

Friday – 11

Please pray that God will continue to bless FEBC Russian Ministries financially, so we can continue to preach the Gospel to millions in Russia and Ukraine who need Jesus. Thank you, friends, for your prayers and support!

Saturday – 12

Please pray for Evgeny Goltsov, FEBC's program coordinator in Kiev, the capital of Ukraine. "My passion is to bring the love of Christ to people, by reaching out to them. Today, Ukraine is ready to receive the Good News," says Evgeny. Pray that many Ukrainians will come to faith in God through FEBC programs.

Sunday – 13

Please pray for Vyacheslav, 38, from St. Petersburg. He is a former drug addict who is dying in the hospital. He has been listening to FEBC broadcasts and wants to give his life to God. Pray that Vyacheslav will repent of his sins and accept Jesus as his Savior.

Monday – 14

Please continue to pray for Sergey Burlaka, FEBC's leader in Kiev, Ukraine, as he has many responsibilities at our new station in Odessa. Pray for God's wisdom and blessings upon Sergey.

Tuesday – 15

“Thank you, friends, for your amazing broadcasts that I listen to on the Internet! Because of you, I became a Christian and I love my Savior with all my heart! Please pray for my best friend, Aleksandr. Pray that God will set him free from alcoholism, transform his life and give him a desire to serve the Lord.” Ilia from St. Petersburg.

Wednesday – 16

Please pray for Victor Akhterov, FEBC Russian Ministries' director, as he has many responsibilities for developing FEBC's ministry in Russia and Ukraine. He travels a lot, works with our staff in different cities and needs strength and wisdom from God. Also, pray for his family.

Thursday – 17

Grigory and Andrey live in St. Petersburg and listen to FEBC programs on the Internet. They are not Christians but call the studio often and like to talk about Christianity. Of course, they have many questions and want to know more about Jesus. Please pray that these young people will come to faith in God.

Friday – 18

Please pray for Evgeny Sarapulov, an FEBC broadcaster in Moscow. We thank God for people who have committed their lives to Jesus because of Evgeny's program called Good Day. Ask God to use his programs to bring more listeners into His Kingdom. Also, pray for his family: Evgeny and his wife, Svetlana, have four children.

Saturday – 19

“Thank you, friends, for your amazing work for God! Because of your programs and prayers, many people have received salvation and become Christians. Please pray for my nephew who needs God's healing. Pray that God will bless and transform his life. Pray that God will heal his body and soul.” Evgeny from Ukraine.

Sunday – 20

Please pray for Natalia Chetverina, an FEBC programmer in Moscow. Her program Hope for the Heart has helped many listeners find freedom in Jesus. Pray that God will continue to bless her programs and life. Also, pray for Natalia's health; she needs God's healing.

Monday – 21

“Dear brothers and sisters, thank you very much for your programs that we listen to regularly. Please pray for teenager, Leva, who was involved in a car accident and now is in a coma. Pray that God will save his life and heal him.” Evgeny from Russia.

Tuesday – 22

Please pray for Grigory Burlaka, FEBC manager in Chernovtsy, Western Ukraine, and for his staff. Pray that God will give them wisdom and bless their programs, so that many non-believers will come to faith in God.

Wednesday – 23

Please pray for Galina from Russia. She began listening to FEBC broadcasts and wants to change her life. Pray for salvation of Galina and her family.

Thursday – 24

Happy Thanksgiving, dear Friends! Let us thank God for all His blessings and guidance. Praise the Lord for thousands of new believers in Russia and Ukraine, who received salvation through Christ by listening to FEBC’s broadcasts.

Friday – 25

Please pray for Eduard Kurilenko, FEBC’s administrative director in Ukraine, and his staff. Pray that God will bless our broadcasters and their programs. Thousands of our listeners in Eastern Ukraine are traumatized by the war, and are now surviving any way they can. Joblessness, alcoholism and a new wave of suicides define the new normal for this region. FEBC’s voice is desperately needed there. Please pray for peace in Ukraine.

Saturday – 26

Please pray for Aleksandr from Ukraine who was born into a Christian family but later left the Lord. He is seriously ill now and could die any day. Pray that he will repent of his sins and ask God for forgiveness. Also, pray for his family. This is a difficult time for all of them.

Sunday – 27

Please pray for Oleg Shevkun, FEBC’s senior broadcaster in Moscow. Because of his teaching, many listeners committed their lives to Jesus. Pray that God will continue to bless Oleg’s programs, so that more people will come to faith in God.

Monday – 28

Please pray for Evgeny from Ukraine who is recovering from hip surgery. He loves FEBC broadcasts and has supported our ministry for many years. Pray that God will completely heal Evgeny and bless his life.

Tuesday – 29

Please pray for Irina Chernova, FEBC programmer in Moscow. Pray that God will continue to bless her work, so that many listeners will accept Jesus through Irina’s programs. Also, pray for God’s blessings upon Irina’s life.

Wednesday – 30

Please pray for Madi, a listener to our Kazakhstan broadcasts who just started a business. However, criminals stole his small truck that he just bought a few weeks ago. The police are not very efficient here. Madi still hopes for a miracle, so that the truck will be found in good condition.
