

FEBC Russian Ministries Prayer Focus September 2016

Thursday – 1

Please pray for Victor Akhterov, director of FEBC Russian Ministries, as he is traveling in Ukraine, working with Christian leaders in Odessa, where FEBC is establishing its newest station. Pray that local Christians will work together to reach their city for Jesus. Also, pray for strength and safety for Victor as he travels.

Friday – 2

Please pray for Oleg Cherny, FEBC Russian Ministries' administrative director. Pray for God's blessings in his work in various Russian cities. Also, pray for his health. He is still not feeling well.

Saturday – 3

"Please pray for my friend, Sergey. He was involved in the war and now he can't seem to live a normal life. He drinks a lot and struggles with depression. Pray that God will heal his body and soul and draw him to Himself." Andrei from St. Petersburg.

Sunday – 4

Please pray for Rudi and Anni Wiens, as they travel in Germany and Central Asia. There are many meetings with ministry partners. We do not want to take for granted God's protection from possible illnesses and other inconveniences during their travels. We also pray for God's wisdom in all the meetings.

Monday – 5

Please pray for Artem from St. Petersburg. He is disappointed in life and does not want to live. "I want to die," says Artem. Pray that he will find a true purpose for living in Jesus.

Tuesday – 6

Please pray for Natalia Chetverina, an FEBC programmer in Moscow. Her program Hope for the Heart is still very popular and helps people find their way to salvation. Also, pray for Natalia's health. Pray that God will heal her and give her strength to continue to work for the Lord.

Wednesday – 7

"Please pray for my friend who has AIDS. She began to listen to FEBC broadcasts and read the New Testament. She wants to be closer to God and be saved. Pray that she will accept Jesus as her personal Savior.” Evgeni from St. Petersburg.

Thursday – 8

Please pray for Evgeny Sarapulov, an FEBC broadcaster in Moscow. His program Great Day is the answer to many listeners’ questions. New Christians and non-believers call the program to be encouraged and to learn how to achieve the best in life. Pray that God will continue to bless Evgeny’s work and his family: they have four children. Please continue to pray that all of them will serve the Lord.

Friday – 9

Please pray for Eila, our Internet programmer in Moscow. We have thousands of new Internet listeners and many of them became Christians. Pray that God will continue to bless Eila’s work.

Saturday – 10

Please pray for FEBC's possible ministry opportunities in Moldova, a small country between Ukraine and Romania. The Moldovian people are suffering, experiencing economic and military turbulence; many are looking for answers. Please pray for wisdom and God's guidance.

Sunday – 11

Please pray for Oleg Shevkun, FEBC’s senior broadcaster in Moscow. His programs have brought many new listeners to us. People appreciate his programs and listen to Oleg’s teaching regularly. Pray that God will continue to bless Oleg and his programs.

Monday – 12

Please pray for FEBC's leadership in Moscow, as we are restructuring and planning to reach several million listeners through our online ministry alone.

Tuesday – 13

“Thank you, friends, for your wonderful broadcasts that led me to the Lord! Please pray for salvation of my daughter, father, mother, brother and sister. I want them to be saved, too, and serve the Lord.” Svetlana from Slavyansk, Ukraine.

Wednesday – 14

Please pray for Ulanbek Karypov, Rudi’s assistant with FEBC’s ministry in Central Asia. Pray that God will give him wisdom and bless his work with the staff, so that many Muslims who live in this country will accept Jesus Christ.

Thursday – 15

“Please pray for Ekaterina, a single mom of four. Recently, she accepted Jesus into her heart, but she is still struggling with depression. Pray that God will completely heal her and bless her and her children.” Aleksandr from St. Petersburg.

Friday – 16

Please continue to pray for Russia and the impact of the new anti-terrorism laws that include heavy-handed restrictions on electronic media and religious freedom.

Saturday – 17

Please pray for Ruslan, FEBC’s leader in Almaty. Pray that he will be willing to accept more responsibilities there.

Sunday – 18

Please pray for Evgeny Goltsov, FEBC’s program coordinator in Kiev, the capital of Ukraine. Evgeny is responsible for programming in the Ukrainian language. Pray that God will bless Evgeny and all the staff who are producing programs in the new studio in Kiev.

Monday – 19

Please pray that God will continue to bless FEBC Russian Ministries financially in order to preach the Gospel to millions of Russians and Ukrainians who need to know who their Savior is. Thank you, friends, for your prayers and support!

Tuesday – 20

Please pray for Viktor Kurilenko, FEBC’s director in Slavyansk, Ukraine, and the staff. Pray that many listeners will come to know the Lord at this difficult time for Ukraine. Thousands of refugees live in Slavyansk now and they have an opportunity to listen to FEBC broadcasts. Pray that they will accept Jesus as their Savior.

Wednesday – 21

“Please pray for salvation of my brother, Anton. Thanks to your broadcasts, I am a Christian now and I want my brother to serve the Lord, too. Pray that God will set him free from drugs and bless his life.” Pavel from St. Petersburg.

Thursday – 22

Please pray for Alexey Vlasihin, FEBC-Russia’s program director. Alexey and the staff in Moscow and St. Petersburg work on several programming projects. Pray that God will bless their work, as well as their listeners, so they will be saved through FEBC broadcasts.

Friday – 23

“Dear friends, please pray for me and my friend. We are homeless and live on the street. We are hungry every day. Pray that God will help us find work and give us some food.” Ekaterina from Russia.

Saturday – 24

Please pray for Eduard Kurilenko, the manager of FEBC-Slavyansk station in Ukraine. Pray for God's wisdom in his work and for safety on the road, as he travels a lot. Also, pray for his family: Eduard and his wife, Nadezhda, have four little children.

Sunday – 25

Please pray for little Sasha from St. Petersburg. For four years, she has been ill with cancer. Pray that God will heal her. Pray, too, for her parents who need strength and God's help at this difficult time of their life.

Monday – 26

Please pray for Sergey Burlaka, FEBC leader in Kiev, Ukraine, as he works to open an FM station in Odessa. Pray that God will provide everything in preparation for the broadcasts and He will bless Sergey's work.

Tuesday – 27

“Dear friends, please pray for my granddaughter, Maria. She is 26 and has three children. Her husband left her because she drinks a lot. Pray that God will set Maria free from alcohol and bless her family.” Roza from St. Petersburg.

Wednesday – 28

Please pray for Janysh, FEBC's station manager in Bishkek, Kyrgyzstan. Pray that God will give him wisdom and excellence in his work, so that many Muslims will accept Jesus as their Savior.

Thursday – 29

We continue to work on developing Internet broadcasts in Almaty, Kazakhstan. It is coming along well, even though we would like to move forward faster.

Friday – 30

Please pray for Grigory Burlaka, FEBC manager in Chernovtsy, Ukraine, and his new staff, Vadim, Nadezhda and Aleksandr. They are young and educated and they have begun producing some new programs in the Ukrainian language. Pray for God's wisdom and blessings upon them.
