

FEBC Russian Ministries Prayer Focus December 2015

Tuesday – 1

Thank God for the beginning of our brand new FM station broadcasts in Issyk-Kul, Kyrgyzstan which went on the air October 8. Our potential listening audience is now a half a million people. Please pray that listeners will benefit from our broadcasts and come to know Jesus as their personal Savior.

Wednesday – 2

Please pray for Rudi Wiens who is overseeing the development of FEBC's outreach in Central Asia. Pray for God's wisdom and blessings in his work and for all our staff in Kyrgyzstan and Kazakhstan.

Thursday – 3

Please pray for Ainura, our morning talk show host in Bishkek. The program is a kind of "Good Morning" talk show that encourages people to start the day with God. Please pray that the program will be uplifting and guiding people towards faith in Jesus.

Friday – 4

Please pray for our Internet broadcast in the Kazakh language. Ardak, our IT person in Almaty, is working on getting the word out to as many as possible via social networks. More and more Kazakh people are tuning in and listening to the Good News. Praise God!

Saturday – 5

Please pray for Alisa in Bishkek, who had to escape her home and husband with her 2-month old daughter. Domestic abuse is very common in Kyrgyzstan. We receive an overwhelming number of responses from listeners on their issue. Please pray that our talk show hosts will be inspired by God with His wisdom as they reach out to their listeners.

Sunday – 6

Please pray for Evgeny Goltsov, FEBC's program coordinator in Kiev, Ukraine. Pray that FEBC's new studio in Kiev will become a place of regeneration for this nation that is in deep crisis.

Monday – 7

Please pray for Nikolay, who is a refugee due to the war in Ukraine; he now lives in Slavyansk, Ukraine. He became an FEBC listener and has asked us to pray that God will give him strength and heal his soul.

Tuesday – 8

Please pray for Alexey Vlasihin, director of FEBC-St. Petersburg, and the staff. Pray that God will use their programs to touch and transform listeners in this large city. Also, pray for Alexey's family: Alexey and his wife Natasha have two children.

Wednesday – 9

“My husband went to get drugs. I cannot stand it anymore! Please pray that God will destroy Satan's plan and save my husband. Thank you, friends, for your broadcasts! Because of you, I became a Christian.” Anonymous from St. Petersburg.

Thursday – 10

“Thank you, friends, for your broadcasts that I began to listen to. I want to serve the Lord and I want to be saved. Please pray that God will set me free from alcoholism and smoking.” Aleksey from Slavyansk, Ukraine.

Friday – 11

Please pray that God will continue to bless FEBC Russian Ministries financially, so we can continue to preach the Gospel to those who need freedom in Jesus Christ. Millions of non-believers in Russia and Ukraine need salvation. Thank you, friends, for your prayers and support!

Saturday – 12

Please pray for Natalia from Kazakhstan, who is a pastor's wife. She is ill with leukemia and needs an expensive surgery. Many churches have helped them financially. Please pray that the surgery will be successful and for God's healing for Natalia.

Sunday – 13

Please pray for Oleg Cherny, FEBC Russian Ministries' administrative director who has many responsibilities. Pray that God will bless his work in Moscow, Norilsk, Michurinsk, St. Petersburg and Tambov. Also, pray for his health and safety in traveling.

Monday – 14

“My name is Rosa; I am 20. My husband is from Ukraine and he is a year older than I am. We got married several months ago. In the beginning, he prohibited me from seeing my friends, than to go outside (except to get some groceries), and later he began to beat me, because he is very jealous. He destroys everything at home and says that I have to clean, do laundry, cook for him and show my love to him even though he beats me. I think he is seriously ill. Please pray for him. I like to listen to your broadcasts and I believe that your prayers will help us.” Rosa from Moscow.

Tuesday – 15

Please pray for Victor Akhterov, FEBC Russian Ministries’ director, as he is forming a new radio team in Kiev, Ukraine. Pray that God will send us the right people who will be able to influence Ukraine for Christ. Also, pray for safety in travel and for Victor’s family: wife, Oksana, and their two sons, Dennis and Stephen. Ask God to provide for all their needs.

Wednesday – 16

“Hello, dear friends! Because of your broadcasts, I repented of all my sins and have been baptized. Listening to your programs, I am growing spiritually and learning how to follow Jesus and serve Him. Thank you very much for your amazing sermons! Please pray that I will be strong in my faith.” Vyacheslav from Russia.

Thursday – 17

Please pray for Elena Bakanova, FEBC's new programmer in Kiev, Ukraine, as she is recording interviews with the most influential Christians in the country. Pray for God’s wisdom, guidance and blessings for Elena’s work.

Friday– 18

Please pray for Janysh, our FEBC manager in Kyrgyzstan. Pray that God will give him wisdom and blessings in his work in this Muslim country.

Saturday – 19

Please pray for Kyrgyzstan. After recently adding an FM station in Issyk-Kul, we have been given the opportunity to extend our FM network in Kyrgyzstan. We need wisdom to make the right decisions regarding the when and where to expand.

Sunday – 20

Please pray for Oleg Bindasov, FEBC manager in Moscow, and the staff. Pray that God will use them to bring many listeners into the Kingdom of God through FEBC’s ministry in this city. Also, pray for Oleg’s family: Oleg and his wife Katya have two children.

Monday – 21

Please pray for Elena from Slavyansk, Ukraine, who is struggling with depression. Pray that God will heal Elena’s soul.

Tuesday – 22

Please pray for Ludmila from Ukraine. Due to many difficulties in her life, her heart became weak. Pray that God will heal Ludmila’s heart and bless her life.

Wednesday – 23

Please continue to pray for Natalia Broadarskaya, the widow of Viktor, one of FEBC's volunteers in Slavyansk, who was murdered by rebels for his faith. Natalia now ministers to refugees who flood their city from neighboring areas because of the war. Pray for strength and safety for Natalia and her family.

Thursday – 24

“Dear friends, I know that you have helped many people; please help us, too. My father is a very wicked person. My mother, my sister and me are afraid of him. His anger is terrible! He beats us. I almost killed myself, but God saved me through your broadcasts. Thank you very much! I have listened to you for two years and I am a Christian now. I talked to my father about your programs and God's love, but nothing changed. Please pray that my father will repent of his sins and become a good Christian and father.” Tanya from Moscow.

Friday – 25

Merry Christmas, dear Friends! Thank you very much for your prayers and support! Please pray that many non-believers will accept Jesus as their personal Savior through FEBC's Christmas broadcasts.

Saturday – 26

Please pray for Grigory Burlaka, FEBC manager in Chernovtsy, Western Ukraine. Due to FEBC's broadcasts in this city for many years, thousands of Ukrainians committed their lives to Jesus. Now we are trying to establish an FM station in this part of Ukraine. Please pray for this.

Sunday – 27

“I got married two years ago. Yesterday my husband died from a brain tumor. He was only 25. I do not know how I can live now. Please pray for me.” Anya from Moscow.

Monday – 28

Please pray for Evgeny Sarapulov, an FEBC broadcaster and psychologist in Moscow. His program Good Day is very popular and it has helped many listeners in their needs. Because of his broadcasts, many non-believers and many families have been saved. Praise the Lord! Pray that God will continue to bless Evgeny's work and his family: Evgeny and his wife, Svetlana, have four children.

Tuesday – 29

Please pray for Irina Rodukova, an FEBC broadcaster in Moscow. Irina hosts several programs and manages several projects. Please pray that God will bless Irina's work and many non-believers will hear about Jesus through her programs.

Wednesday – 30

Please continue to pray for Sergey Burlaka, FEBC leader in Kiev, Ukraine, as he is working on several audio/video projects. Pray that many non-believers will be saved through Sergey's ministry.

Thursday – 31

Please pray for Alexey, Natalia, Tatyana, Yuri, Sergey, Irina, and Pavel, as they host daily programs for the family. These trained hosts participate in the program on different days of the week and reach millions of Russians and Ukrainians for Jesus.
