

FEBC Russian Ministries Prayer Focus February 2017

Wednesday – 1

Please continue to pray for the financial stability of FEBC Russian Ministries. Because of your generous support and prayers, many listeners have accepted Jesus into their hearts and serve Him. Pray that God will bless us financially. We thank God for new Christians who have come to faith, especially for young people, who have received salvation through FEBC broadcasts in Russia and Ukraine.

Thursday – 2

Please pray for the new FEBC station in Kramatorsk, Eastern Ukraine, scheduled to start broadcasting in February of 2017. When we tested the signal, it can be heard on both sides of the line of fire. Please pray that thousands will be led to Jesus in this war-torn zone.

Friday – 3

Please pray for Boris from Kramatorsk, Ukraine. He is a preacher and has participated in Viktor Kurilenko's program Life for a long time. Recently he had a heart attack and now is in the hospital. Pray that God will heal Boris, so that he can continue to preach the Gospel through FEBC broadcasts.

Saturday – 4

Please pray for Evgeny Sarapulov, an FEBC broadcaster in Moscow. His daily program Great Day is very popular because he answers hundreds of questions and encourages people to serve the Lord. Pray that God will continue to bless Evgeny's programs, so that many non-believers will accept Jesus as their Savior.

Sunday – 5

"Thank you, friends, for your programs that I listen to regularly. Please pray for me because my soul needs your prayers. I do not have any strength to live. Pray that God will help me overcome all difficulties in my life and be strong in the Lord." Lera from Moscow.

Monday – 6

Lyudmila Aleksandrova, an FEBC broadcaster in St. Petersburg, asked us to pray for her mother who was scheduled for an operation on her face due to a serious disease. Pray for a successful operation and for her salvation.

Tuesday – 7

Please pray for Eduard Kurilenko, the manager of FEBC's station in Slavyansk, Eastern Ukraine, and his team. Pray that God will bless all their programs and talk shows, so that many listeners will come to faith in God through FEBC broadcasts in this city.

Wednesday – 8

“Thank you very much for your encouraging programs! Because of you, I became a child of God. Please pray for salvation of my son. Pray that God will set him free from alcoholism and save his soul.” Lyudmila from Slavyansk, Ukraine.

Thursday – 9

Praise God for the permission to start FM broadcasting in Nikolaevka, Odessa region, in Ukraine. FEBC now operates several stations in Ukraine. We are so grateful that God continues to open doors in this country.

Friday – 10

“Thank you, friends, for your amazing programs that I listen to regularly. Listening to your broadcasts, my father, 78 years old, repented of his sins and accepted Jesus as his Savior. After a short time, he died and went to be with the Lord. Praise God for his saved soul!” Vladimir from Slavyansk, Ukraine.

Saturday – 11

“Thank you, friends, for your programs and prayers! Because of you, many people have received salvation and healing and they serve the Lord with joy. Please pray for my relative. Pray that God will fully restore his health, give him strength and bless his life. He had many difficulties in his life because he is a Christian, but his faith is still strong and he loves the Lord with all his heart.” Evgeny from Ukraine.

Sunday – 12

Please pray for FEBC's leadership team in Russia and Ukraine: Victor, Alexey, Oleg, Eduard, Sergey, and Evgeny. Pray for wisdom and God's protection for their families.

Monday – 13

Please pray for FEBC listeners in the Siberian region of Tomsk where FEBC is on several FM stations since this winter. Pray that many non-believers will be saved.

Tuesday – 14

Please pray for Lyudmila, an FEBC broadcaster in St. Petersburg. She has a serious problem with her neck. Pray that God will heal Lyudmila and bless her life.

Wednesday – 15

Please pray for FEBC-Russia's efforts to reach more listeners online. Victor Akhterov, the ministry director, says, "After successful research, we are planning to invest more into online and smart phone app broadcasting in 2017. We already have hundreds of thousands of new listeners."

Thursday – 16

Egor, a young FEBC listener from St. Petersburg, found us through social media. He began to listen to FEBC broadcasts and said he is very thankful for our programs. He calls himself an Orthodox Christian but he knows little about God. Please pray that Egor will continue to listen to FEBC broadcasts and become a real Christian.

Friday – 17

Please pray for Aleksey Vlasihin, FEBC's manager in St. Petersburg, and his team. They use new technologies and are reaching hundreds of thousands of listeners for Jesus. Pray for God's blessings and wisdom in their work. Also, pray for their families.

Saturday – 18

Aleksandr from St. Petersburg is not a Christian and recently began to listen to FEBC broadcasts on the Internet. Because his wife does not love him, he was cheating on her. Now he is looking for help and wants to save his family. Please pray that Aleksandr will come to faith in Jesus and repent of his sins. Pray that he and his wife will serve the Lord.

Sunday – 19

Please pray for FEBC-Russia's remaining FM stations to be protected from government interference as the attacks on Christian broadcasts continue. Pray for the relative freedom to share the Gospel to continue in Russia. Please pray for our stations in Norilsk and Tambov regions.

Monday – 20

Please pray for Victor Akhterov, FEBC Russian Ministries' director, as he develops FEBC's ministry in Russia and Ukraine. Pray for wisdom and guidance from God in Victor's work and for his family: his wife, Oksana, and their two sons, Dennis and Stephen.

Tuesday – 21

A pastor and FEBC volunteer, Semion, from Chernovtsy, Ukraine, asked us to pray for young men who have become Christians in prison. Pray for Aleksandr, 20; Andrey, 28; Leonid, 25; Sergey, 35; Anatoliy, 22, and Andrey, 18. Listening to FEBC programs in prison, they repented of their sins and accepted Jesus as their Savior. Pray that they will be strong in their faith because prisoners make fun of them and even beat them.

Wednesday – 22

Please pray for Oleg Cherny, FEBC Russian Ministries' administrative director. Pray for God's wisdom in his work and for strength and safety in traveling.

Thursday – 23

Winter is a good time for people to listen to their radios. Many listen inside the warmth of their homes. Please pray that our broadcasters will touch the hearts of those who listen. We are receiving good calls from listeners to our newest Toktogul station in Kyrgyzstan.

Friday – 24

We thank God for new broadcasters in Almaty, Kazakhstan. Please pray that Laura's broadcast will find its way to the right Kazakh listeners. We have great hopes for Laura's participation in our ministry in Kazakhstan.

Saturday – 25

FEBC volunteer from Chernovtsy, Ukraine, asked us to pray for his nephew, Anatoliy. He experienced head trauma and was in a coma for several days. Now he is recovering after an operation. Please pray for Anatoliy's health and salvation.

Sunday – 26

"Thank you, friends, for your wonderful broadcasts! Please pray for my son, Gleb, who was scheduled for an ear operation because of hearing problems. Pray for a successful surgery." Anton from St. Petersburg.

Monday – 27

Please continue to pray for Rev. Oleg Shevkun, FEBC's senior broadcaster in Moscow. He invites non-Christian students to the studio and asks them to read the Bible on the air. Oleg likes to work with young people and talk to them about Jesus. Pray that many of his listeners will come to faith in Jesus.

Tuesday – 28

"Dear friends, thank you very much for your encouraging programs that I listen to regularly. Please pray for my family. My wife, Tatiana, left our evangelical church and began to attend an Orthodox church. We have two small children, and my wife forbids them to go with me to church. There is no peace in our family. Pray that God will change Tatiana's life and return her to our evangelical church." Petr from Chernovtsy, Ukraine.
