

FEBC Russian Ministries Prayer Focus July 2015

Wednesday – 1

Please pray for Rudi Wiens, FEBC's Regional Coordinator of Central Asia. He works in two countries: Kyrgyzstan and Kazakhstan. Pray for God's wisdom and guidance in his work and for his family.

Thursday – 2

We wrote to you about Deborah, our broadcaster in Bishkek, who was struggling with cancer. She recently passed on to be with the Lord, leaving behind her husband and son. Please pray for God's comfort on Deborah's family.

Friday – 3

Please pray for Nurlan, our director in Almaty. Even though we still have not given up hope for an FM frequency, we are moving forward by developing on internet broadcast in the Kazakh language. Please pray for wisdom, as to how to grow our audience. The Kazakh church is still in it's first generation stage.

Saturday – 4

Please pray for Ulanbek, our Kyrgyz program director. His wife, Asyl, is struggling with some health issues. Ulanbek and Asyl have three young children. We trust that Asyl will be healed soon and be able to support Ulanbek in the ministry.

Sunday – 5

Please pray for Olzhas from Kazakhstan. He is scheduled to have eye surgery for the second time. Pray for the doctors and a successful surgery.

Monday – 6

Please pray for Janysh, FEBC manager in Kyrgyzstan. Pray that God will give him wisdom in his work, so that many listeners will accept Jesus Christ as their Savior in this Muslim country.

Tuesday – 7

Please pray for baby, Ilusha, from St. Petersburg. He became ill with bronchitis but his parents do not have the money to place him in a hospital for treatment. Please pray that God will heal Ilusha.

Wednesday – 8

“I’m very thankful to God for FEBC broadcasts because I am completely blind. Your radio gives me a lot. I listen to you day and night. Please pray for my friends and relatives. They need salvation through Jesus Christ.” Mikhail from Ukraine.

Thursday – 9

Please pray for Victor Akhterov, Director of FEBC Russian Ministries, as he leads meetings with Christian leaders regarding FEBC's development in Russia and Ukraine. Pray for more opportunities to broadcast in these countries and to open new stations in Russia and Ukraine. Also pray for Victor’s family and safety in traveling.

Friday – 10

“My husband left us and I am raising my daughter alone. I have many difficulties in my life and very often, I do not know how to help my daughter. Thanks to FEBC broadcasts, we began to attend an evangelical church, but we do not understand anything yet. Please pray for us, especially for my daughter’s health.” Anonymous from Moscow.

Saturday – 11

Please pray for Oleg Bindasov, FEBC manager in Moscow. Pray for God’s wisdom in his work so that many people will find freedom in Christ through FEBC’s ministry in this city. Also, pray for his family: his wife, Katya, and their two sons.

Sunday – 12

“Thank you very much for your broadcasts that help me a lot in my life! I am pregnant and not everything in my family is going well. Please pray that God will save our marriage and also for the health of our baby.” Anya from Ukraine.

Monday – 13

“Thank you, friends, for your programs and prayers! We listen to FEBC broadcasts regularly and thank God for you. Please pray for my 12-year old daughter who broke her back. Pray that God will heal her.” Andrey from St. Petersburg.

Tuesday – 14

Please pray for Elena Bakanova, FEBC's new programmer in Kiev, Ukraine, as she is recording interviews with the most influential Christians in the country. Elena teaches journalism in one of Kiev's colleges.

Wednesday – 15

Please continue to pray for financial blessings for FEBC Russian Ministries. We preach the Gospel to millions of Russians and Ukrainians who need salvation through Jesus Christ. Thank you, friends, for your prayers!

Thursday – 16

Please pray for Evgeny Sarapulov, an FEBC broadcaster in Moscow. He is a psychologist and he has helped many people change their lives. Pray that God will continue to bless Evgeny, his broadcasts and his family.

Friday – 17

Please pray for Konstantin Novikov, a key Ukrainian leader in Kiev, as he recovers from an accident. Also, pray for his wife and daughter.

Saturday – 18

“Please pray for my brother’s healing and salvation. His body and soul need God’s healing. Pray that he will serve the Lord for the rest of his life. Thank you, friends, for your amazing broadcasts!” Lusy from Ukraine.

Sunday – 19

Please pray for Ukrainian National Rada [government counsel] as they are making a decision on issuing frequencies to FEBC-Ukraine.

Monday – 20

Please pray for Viktor Kurilenko, FEBC’s director in Slavyansk, Eastern Ukraine, and staff. Pray that God will protect them and bless their broadcasts, so that many listeners will commit their lives to Christ, especially at this difficult time for the country.

Tuesday – 21

“I am 32 and thinking about marriage. I had a girlfriend, but she was not a good person. Recently I began to listen to your broadcasts and now my thoughts about marriage have completely changed. Please pray that God will help me find a good wife.” Vladimir from Moscow.

Wednesday – 22

Please pray for Mikhail, the station manager in Norilsk, northern Russia. Pray that many people will come to know Christ in Norilsk this summer. Also pray for Mikhail as he travels throughout Russia conducting evangelistic meetings.

Thursday – 23

Please pray for Aleksey Vlasihin, FEBC manager in St. Petersburg. Pray that God will richly bless his work and that many listeners will be saved through FEBC’s ministry in this city. Also pray for Aleksey’s family: they have two little children.

Friday – 24

Please pray for Irina from Ukraine. Pray that God will heal her heart, so that she will rejoice in the Lord. Also pray that God will bless her family spiritually and financially.

Saturday – 25

Please pray for Grigory Burlaka, FEBC manager in Chernivtsi, Western Ukraine, and staff. Currently, they have purchased broadcasting time on local stations. Please continue to pray that God will help them obtain an FM broadcast frequency.

Sunday – 26

Victor Akhterov, director of FEBC Russian Ministries, says, “Please pray for our plans to develop the work of FEBC in Belarus, where there are a lot of restrictions, but new opportunities for the ministry are opening.”

Monday – 27

Please pray for Eduard Kurilenko, the manager of FEBC-Slavyansk station. Specifically pray for safety as he travels to the war zone to distribute radios and other items to help the suffering people there.

Tuesday – 28

Please pray for Oleg Cherny, FEBC Russian Ministries’ administrative director, as he has many responsibilities. Pray for God’s help in his work and good health. Also pray for his family.

Wednesday – 29

“Dear friends, please pray for my adopted daughter, Anya. She is seven and is very ill with different diseases. She is in the hospital now with pneumonia. Pray that God will heal Anya.” Anonymous from St. Petersburg.

Thursday – 30

Please pray for Olesya Dolina, a producer of children’s programs in Ukraine. Pray that God will use Olesya and her programs to help children discover Jesus and follow Him.

Friday – 31

Please pray for Gleb Ilinski, an FEBC programmer in St. Petersburg. His program is very popular and many non-believers like to listen to him. Pray that they will find freedom in Christ through Gleb’s broadcastings.
