

FEBC Russian Ministries Prayer Focus June 2017

Thursday – 1

Please pray for Evgeny Sarapulov, an FEBC broadcaster in Moscow. His program Great Day is the answer to many listeners' questions. During the airtime, Evgeny receives many phone calls from believers and from listeners who do not serve God yet. We are so glad and thankful to God that many people have become Christians through Evgeny's program. Pray that God will continue to bless Evgeny's work and his family; they have four children.

Friday – 2

Please pray for the development of interactive radio via internet in Kazakhstan. Pray for our new office manager, Laura, in Almaty. She also does her own weekly talk show, especially helping women with their daily challenges. Please pray that through those programs people will come to know Jesus as their Savior and Lord.

Saturday – 3

"My 40-year old daughter is mentally ill. My husband died twenty years ago. I can't help my daughter and I do not have strength to live. Please pray for us. Pray that God will heal her." Svetlana from St. Petersburg.

Sunday – 4

Ulanbek is meeting key partners and potential talk-show hosts in Bishkek. There also will be a gathering of key Christian leaders in Central Asia beginning of June. Please pray for safety and God's blessings.

Monday – 5

Please pray for a young Christian family from Chernivtsy, Ukraine. Vadim and Alena have two little children, but because of sin, this family is on the verge of divorce. Please pray that God will save this marriage and help them to live according to His commandments.

Tuesday – 6

Rudi Wiens and his wife, Anni, are happy grandparents; on May 13 another granddaughter, Vera, was born. Vera means faith in Russian, so pray that they do have faith that everything will be well with the baby and family. Rudi and Anni also appreciate prayers for blessings to their immediate family.

Wednesday – 7

Janysh has applied for the FM frequency in Talasin, in the west part of Kyrgyzstan. Please pray for the development of the FM network in Kyrgyzstan. We hope to have six FM stations throughout Kyrgyzstan by 2020, God willing.

Thursday – 8

“Thank you, friends, for your broadcasts that I like to listen to. Please pray for the salvation of my brother. Pray that he will stop living in sin and change his life.” Lera from Moscow.

Friday – 9

Please continue to pray for our new station in Shastya, Eastern Ukraine, the city, which is controlled by rebels. Now we have some technical problems there. Pray that God will provide everything we need for broadcasting.

Saturday – 10

“Thank you very much for your broadcasts! I like to listen to you and I believe in your prayers. Please pray that my sister will stop drinking and become a good mother. Also, pray for her children. Pray that they will not live in need and be in good health.” Nargiza from Moscow.

Sunday – 11

Please pray for Oleg Shevkun, FEBC’s senior broadcaster in Moscow. His programs have brought many new young listeners to us who know a little about Christianity and like Oleg’s teaching. Pray that they will accept Jesus and serve Him. Also, pray that God will continue to bless Oleg and his programs.

Monday – 12

“Because of your broadcasts, I became a Christian. Thank you for your amazing programs and prayers! Please pray for salvation of my husband. For several months already, we live separately. We have a little daughter and I want her to live in a complete family.” Alena from Moscow.

Tuesday – 13

Please pray for Oleg Cherny, FEBC Russian Ministries’ administrative director, as he has many responsibilities in the ministry. Pray for God’s wisdom and blessings in his work. Also, pray for his health.

Wednesday – 14

“Listening to your program for the first time, I was surprised that you, Christians, were discussing deep, serious questions. Your decisions and answers were wise and in my mind I was agreeing with you. My friend suggested listening to your broadcast and I do not regret I did. I will continue to listen to you. Good luck!” Mikhail from St. Petersburg. Please pray that Mikhail will accept Jesus into his heart.

Thursday – 15

Please pray for Victor Akhterov, director of FEBC Russian Ministries, as he carries many responsibilities for developing FEBC ministry in Russia and Ukraine. Pray for God's wisdom and blessings in his work with our staff and leaders in different cities. Also, pray for strength and safety for Victor as he travels.

Friday – 16

“Thank you very much for your broadcasts that led me to the Lord. Because of you, I repented of all my sins and began to attend an evangelical church. Unfortunately, I can't forget my sins and I can't forgive myself. Please pray that God will heal my soul.” Anonymous from St. Petersburg.

Saturday – 17

Please pray for Ruslan, FEBC's leader in Almaty. Pray for God's blessings and wisdom in his work, and that many non-believers will accept Jesus in this Muslim country. Also, pray for his family.

Sunday – 18

“Thank you, friends for your wonderful work for the Lord. Only God knows how many people God have saved through your broadcasts. Please pray for my brother's health. Pray that God will heal his body and restore his life.” Tanya from Ukraine.

Monday – 19

Please pray for Evgeny Goltsov, FEBC's program coordinator in Kiev, the capital of Ukraine. Evgeny is responsible for programming in the Ukrainian language. We broadcast these programs in various cities in Ukraine. Pray that many listeners will come to faith in God through these broadcasts.

Tuesday – 20

“Thank you, friends, for your wonderful broadcasts that we listen to regularly. Recently, we adopted a boy, Kostya. Please pray that God will give us wisdom and patience to raise him. We want him to belong to God and serve Him.” Irina from Slavyansk, Ukraine.

Wednesday – 21

Please pray for Viktor Kurilenko, FEBC's director in Slavyansk, Ukraine, and the staff. Because of war, thousands of refugees live in Slavyansk now; they need salvation in Jesus. Please pray for them.

Thursday – 22

“Thanks to your broadcasts, I became a Christian! Your programs help me a lot in my life. Day by day I learn how to live by God's will. Please pray for my husband. He repented of his sins in church but in a short time he returned to his sinful life. Pray that he will commit his life to Jesus.” Oksana from Slavyansk, Ukraine.

Friday – 23

Please pray for Alexey Vlasihin, FEBC-Russia’s program director. Alexey and the staff in Moscow and St. Petersburg work on several programming projects for the Internet. Pray that thousands of new listeners, especially young people, will come to faith in God through the Internet broadcasting.

Saturday – 24

Please pray that God will continue to bless FEBC Russian Ministries financially in order to preach the Gospel to millions of Russians and Ukrainians who need salvation through Jesus Christ. Thank you, friends, for your prayers and support!

Sunday – 25

Please pray for Sergey Burlaka, FEBC leader in Kiev, Ukraine, as he produces videos and has many responsibilities for the ministry. Pray that God will bless Sergey’s work, so that many non-believers will come to know the Lord through his videos on the Internet.

Monday – 26

Please pray for Nadezhda Pastushak, FEBC broadcaster in Chernivtsy, Ukraine. She produces family programs in the Ukrainian language. Pray for God’s wisdom and blessings in her work.

Tuesday – 27

“Hello, friends! I am not a Christian but I like to listen to your broadcasts. I have a question: why God does not want to prove that He exists? Why do we have to wait to find out of His existence until we will die?” Misha from St. Petersburg. Please pray that Misha will understand and accept God’s love and will serve Him.

Wednesday – 28

Please pray for Irina Chernova, FEBC broadcaster in Moscow. Pray that God will use her programs to touch and change listeners’ lives. Also, pray that God will bless Irina’s personal life.

Thursday – 29

“Thank you, friends, for your broadcasts that I began to listen to recently. I believe that God hears our prayers when we ask Him for help. Please pray for us. My mom lost her job and we are in big debts now. Pray for a good job for my mom and financial stability for our family.” Uliana from Moscow.

Friday – 30

Please pray for Grigory Burlaka, FEBC manager in Chernivtsy, Ukraine, and his staff. They have begun producing some new programs in the Ukrainian language, especially for young listeners. Pray that many non-believers will accept Jesus through FEBC broadcasts in Chernivtsy.
