

FEBC Russian Ministries Prayer Focus October 2016

Saturday – 1

Please pray for Oleg Cherny, FEBC Russian Ministries' administrative director. Pray for God's blessings and wisdom on his work, as well as strength and safety while traveling. Also, continue to pray for his health.

Sunday – 2

"Thank you, friends, for your programs that led me to the Lord. I have a friend, Patrik, who is a non-believer and he does not want to hear about God. I tried to talk to him many times about salvation through Jesus Christ but he said he does not need Him. Please pray that Jesus will show Patrik how much he needs Him. Pray that my friend will be saved, too." Evgeny from St. Petersburg.

Monday – 3

Anna from St. Petersburg asked us to pray for her baby. She is pregnant and doctors said that her baby might have Down syndrome. "Please pray that my baby will be healthy," asked Anna.

Tuesday – 4

Please pray for Evgeny Sarapulov, an FEBC broadcaster in Moscow. Listeners, especially non-believers, like his program Great Day because they can talk with Evgeny about everything. They receive help and answers to their questions from this program. Pray that God will continue to bless Evgeny and his family: they have four children. Please continue to pray that all of them will serve the Lord.

Wednesday – 5

Please pray for Olga, mother of three, from Ukraine who became seriously ill. She struggles with pain in her eyes and head. Pray that God will heal Olga.

Thursday – 6

Please pray for Alexey Vlasihin, FEBC manager in St. Petersburg, as he has many ministry responsibilities. Pray for strength, stamina, and safety in traveling.

Friday – 7

"Because of your broadcasts, we became Christians. Thank you, friends, for your wonderful programs! I would like to ask you to pray for my children, Sofia and Svyatoslav. They are persecuted in school. Because they believe in God, students make fun of them and sometimes beat them. Pray for God's protection and blessings for my children." Tatiana from Slavyansk, Ukraine.

Saturday – 8

Please pray for Natalia Chetverina, an FEBC programmer in Moscow. Through her program Hope for the Heart, many people have found freedom in Christ and serve Him. Also, pray for Natalia's health. Pray that God will completely heal her and bless her work for the Lord.

Sunday – 9

“Thank you, friends, for your programs that give me comfort and strength in this difficult time of my life. After a second surgery, I need God's help and healing. Please pray that God will heal my soul and restore my physical health.” Sergey from Ukraine.

Monday – 10

Please pray for Ulanbek Karypov, FEBC's program director in Central Asia. Pray for God's wisdom and blessings in his work in Kyrgyzstan and Kazakhstan, so that many Muslims in these countries will accept Jesus Christ.

Tuesday – 11

Please pray for Konstantin Novikov, our leader in Kiev, Ukraine. Pray that God will bless his work and family.

Wednesday – 12

Please pray that God will continue to bless FEBC Russian Ministries financially, so we will be able to continue to preach the Gospel to FEBC listeners in Russia and Ukraine. Millions of non-believers still need Jesus! Thank you very much for your prayers and support!

Thursday – 13

Please pray for Rudi Wiens and his team. Mid October, they are scheduled to begin broadcasting on our newest FM station in Toktogul, Kyrgyzstan. The final installation of the antenna and transmitter is scheduled for October 16-17. Brett and Ethan, staff from FEBC La Mirada, are planning to witness that historic moment. Our prayer is that everything will unfold without unnecessary problems.

Friday – 14

Please pray for Janysh, as he prepares for the launch of the Toktogul FM station in Southwestern Kyrgyzstan. This includes moving the transmitter through customs, etc. May the Lord grant us favor in all those endeavors.

Saturday – 15

“I am asking God for healing. I do not have money for treatment and I believe that my God will heal me. Please pray for me, friends. I listen to your programs regularly and I believe in your prayers.” Vika from Slavyansk, Ukraine.

Sunday – 16

Pray for the potential new FM station in Kramatorsk, Ukraine, to aid people living in war zones.

Monday – 17

Please pray for Viktor Kurilenko, FEBC's director in Slavyansk, Eastern Ukraine, and all his staff. Pray for God's protection for them, for wisdom and guidance in their work, so that many listeners will accept Jesus into their hearts. Pray for peace in Ukraine.

Tuesday – 18

Please pray for Ludmila Aleksandrova, an FEBC broadcaster in St. Petersburg. Pray that many listeners will come to faith in God through her programs. Also, pray for Ludmila's health.

Wednesday – 19

"Thank you very much for your Internet broadcasts! I found your programs when I most needed help and encouragement. My fiancé and I argue very often. We want to get married but we are afraid it will be a difficult life for both of us. Please pray for us." Angelina from Moscow. Pray that Angelina and her fiancé will repent of their sins and accept Jesus.

Thursday – 20

Please pray for Victor Akhterov as he is overseeing the ministry development in Russia, Ukraine and Moldova. "We must be very flexible, responding to things like persecution and military conflicts, while making sure that we remain focused on our mission: to reach more people for Christ."

Friday – 21

Please pray for Irina Chernova, FEBC programmer in Moscow. Pray that God will give her wisdom and use her programs to bring many listeners into the Kingdom of God. Also, pray that God will bless Irina's life.

Saturday – 22

Pray for Odessa, Ukraine, as we work through the many channels to launch a new station there. Pray that God will provide everything we need in preparation for the broadcasts.

Sunday – 23

Please pray for Eduard Kurilenko, FEBC's administrative director in Ukraine. Eduard, a father of four, is responsible for two crucial new projects: FEBC-Kramatorsk and FEBC-Odessa.

Monday – 24

“Thank you, friends, for your amazing broadcasts that we listen to regularly. Please pray for my granddaughter. She is two years old and suddenly, without any reason, she began to stutter. The doctor can not help her. Please pray that God will heal my little granddaughter.” Ulia from Slavyansk, Ukraine.

Tuesday – 25

Please pray for Oleg Shevkun, FEBC’s senior broadcaster in Moscow. His teaching have brought thousands of new listeners to us. People want to know more about God and salvation through Jesus Christ when they listen to Oleg’s programs. Pray that God will continue to bless Oleg and his work for the Lord.

Wednesday – 26

Tatiana, our regular listener from Ukraine, asked us to pray for her son, Konstantin, who will start chemotherapy. Pray that God will heal him.

Thursday – 27

Please pray for Grigory Burlaka, FEBC manager in Chernovtsy, Ukraine, and for his new young staff. Pray that many non-believers will find freedom in Christ through FEBC broadcasts in Chernovtsy.

Friday – 28

Pray for our staff in Russia who are striving to reach our audience in spite of recent restrictions placed on them. Pray for God’s protection and blessings on their work.

Saturday – 29

Please pray for Evgeny Goltsov, FEBC's program coordinator in Ukraine. Pray that he will be able to find more programmers and volunteers in Kiev and other cities to create a 24/7 broadcast schedule that will bring thousands to the saving knowledge of Jesus Christ.

Sunday – 30

“Please pray for a young family from our church where the husband abuses his wife. He says that she should be obedient to him as the Bible teaches us. She is a good woman, precious to God, and deserves to be treated with respect. Her husband told her, “If you don’t like to live like this, get a divorce.” However, she wants to save their marriage. Pray that God will change her husband’s heart and impact the entire family.” Masha and Ilia from Moscow.

Monday – 31

Please pray for Eila, our Internet programmer in Moscow. We have thousands of new Internet listeners and most of them are non-believers. Pray that God will continue to bless Eila’s work, so that many Internet listeners will come to faith in God.
